

"We become better professionals, parents and spouses in only one predictable way; we must become better people. Anything else is simply a collection of techniques and strategies doomed to fail when the going gets tough."
R. Willis

Ron Willis

At a time when organizations and conferences scratch their heads to find relevant and inspirational programs to uplift the discouraged and compel commitment from even the most jaded, Ron Willis has been found to be a "fresh new wind blowing," as shared by John C. Shue, CEO, El Pueblo Boys & Girls Ranch. With a gentle yet penetrating style the man of the old green porch swing weaves powerful personal anecdotes, poems and pictures into the hearts of his audience to impart important life principles that profoundly impacts professional and personal decision making.

Ron is a frequent favorite to present seminars, workshops and keynote addresses to educators, volunteers, mental health and healthcare providers, businesses, civic and parent organizations, childcare professionals and couples throughout the United States. He tailors each presentation to meet current life issues and concerns. His experiences as a clinical psychologist, college instructor and school psychologist allow him to speak directly to wide range of management, leadership, treatment, educational, healthcare and family-centered topics that impact listeners today.

Even business leaders who generally consider affirmation and compassion as "soft" behaviors with little bearing on the bottom line, acknowledge Ron's messages and wisdom "have produced dramatic reductions in turnover, increased productivity, enhanced employee relationships and improved corporate morale," according to Bob Doyle, President/CEO Kansas City's Basic Visions, Inc.

Here's what Ron's clients say about his message:

"In my career I have heard people from all venues speak ... from Pope Paul to Ken Blanchard ... I must tell you that you stand out from all those experiences ..."

Mike Keenan, President, Heatron Inc.

"Thanks for the lifetime you spent helping others keep the main thing, the main thing!"

Larry Reynolds, President, National Newton Learning

"Ron's gentle words are sprinkled with the flavor of inspiration; the ingredient necessary to empower behavioral changes that can transform your life. When he speaks, people really listen."

Larry James, Speaker/Author

"After assessing results we have obtained with your clients ... any doubts about the impact of life principles on the corporate bottom line should now be put to rest."

Bob Doyle, President, Basic Visions, Inc.

An overview of some of the more requested keynotes, seminars and workshops offered by Ron Willis:

Lighting Your Candle and Fanning Its Flame. Remaining encouraged and hopeful through forgiveness, selflessness, loyalty, courage and perseverance. This seminar is terrific fuel for those who desire to maintain a positive personal vision for the future.

Best Friends or Worst Nightmares: Workplace Relationships. Whenever men and women come together to accomplish a common goal, conflict seems to be an inevitable companion. Identify life principles that gradually transform worst nightmares into best friends in the workplace.

In Case We Have to Eat Our Words, Make Them Tender and Sweet. A gentle review of communication principles for use with those we are privileged to work beside, serve, live with and love.

I May Not be a Shining Star but I Hope I Twinkle Just a Little. Ron reminds that problems around us are often not as significant as the people who surround us. Appreciate the impact of self-awareness over self-esteem and come away with work place principles to enrich relationships.

If you are tired of "flash and fluff" with little substance and believe that INSPIRATION rather than MOTIVATION is the true path to excellence then give GREEN PORCH SWING PRODUCTIONS the opportunity to win your respect and trust by designing a keynote or seminar for your next conference or training.
