

“Thank you for conducting the recent small business workshop for our Chamber of Commerce and the city of Pico Rivera. Based on the audience’s active level of participation and the very positive evaluations, your subject matter was right on target. The message you bring is so relevant to today’s businesses, whether a retailer or manufacturer. Your communication style really connected with the audience and make it a successful, interactive workshop.” -Darlene Peysar, Senior Manager, City of Pico Rivera, California
