Dear Mr. Jacobson:

The Department of Rehabilitation, San Diego District, wishes to send this letter of appreciation for your presentation in our District Training held on March 14, 2007 at the Doubletree Golf Resort.

Your presentation on Humor and Communication was very well received. Some of the evaluation comments included "excellent speaker", "funny and fast paced", "a lot of fun", "good points regarding communication techniques", "humor is always a fun way to communicate".

Thank you again for making this one of the best training days for the Department of Rehabilitation.

Sincerely,

Mary A. Nucci
Rehabilitation Specialist
District Training Coordinator
