Nancy:

Thank you for all your help. I have been really busy and didn't get a chance to call you back. Bob Eubanks and the Newlywed Game was probably the most entertaining thing we ever did at a conference. The audience fell off their chairs laughing. The CEO said it was one of the best times he ever had at a conference. The attendees scored it a perfect 5 out of 5 on the surveys. Nothing has ever received a perfect score. Please thank Bob for us. He is a true pro. And thank him for the books he sent Stacey and me.

I used Galie in 1999 and he was a big hit. This should be great too.

Thanks again for all your help.

Larry
