

COACHING & CONSULTING

SHELLI HENDRICKS, EXECUTIVE COACH

Equipping leaders to unlock extraordinary results for their talent, teams and organizations is the cornerstone of our work. Our programs enable strategic execution, organizational change, succession management, leadership development, program evaluation and coaching.

POWERFUL PRESENTATIONS SPEAKER COACHING

One of the greatest fears for most people is the fear of public speaking. Fortunately, these skills can be learned and perfected over time with practice. Our speaker coaching program is a practical, personalized learning experience, focused on developing and delivering a targeted presentation for a specific audience. This six-month program is a great investment for entrepreneurs, business professionals, community leaders or anyone who wants to feel more confident in speaking to groups of any size.

EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP COACHING

Our signature coaching program includes private coaching to maximize personal effectiveness, team performance and organizational success. Whether defining a mission statement, career transition or business plan, coaching can help leaders to focus on real challenges and make informed decisions about the best path forward. We integrate world-class assessments to provide an evidence-based approach to our coaching. Our professional certified coaches are certified by the International Coach Federation.

ORGANIZATIONAL DEVELOPMENT CONSULTING

Our experienced consultants work with teams and organizations of all sizes to create customized practical solutions for real world challenges. We facilitate strategy development, team building, transformative change implementation, talent assessment, succession planning and effectiveness measurement. Let us help you achieve your mission.
