

Arthur Fratelli Biography

As a speaker, Arthur Fratelli inspires audiences to move beyond the past and seize the present, making every moment count in real and meaningful ways. Using everything from gut-busting comedy hypnosis to science-based brain training, Arthur's highly captivating community-building presentations teach you to harness the hidden power of your own subconscious and become your most powerful self.

To excited audiences of all ages, Arthur brings a high energy, mind-blowing shared experience, but he also packs an inspirational punch--training listeners in the science of the brain and unlocking their true potential. Audiences gain a deeper understanding of the value of practice and the power of their own subconscious. Arthur's straight-from-the-heart energy motivates any organization to get moving, take full advantage of every moment, and overcome imagined limitations to become the people they want to be!

Learning to harness his own mind, Arthur has studied everything from stoicism, psychology and mentalism to eastern philosophy and physiology. He's a black belt in TaeKwonDo and a sparring partner to 2 MMA UFC champions.
