Dear Mike,

Thank you for the great presentation at the 2008 Managers' Conference in Omaha. After seeing your presentation to the real estate group in Denver, we were confident you could get this crowd excited.

The Taco John's Managers' Conference is our opportunity to excite and motivate every manager in our system. After seeing you present, we knew you were the perfect presenter to open our conference and set the tone for the entire event. You have the innate ability to engage the audience. The managers were inspired and excited to get back to the restaurant and try your techniques with their teams. Our attendees rated you very high and would love to hear you again.

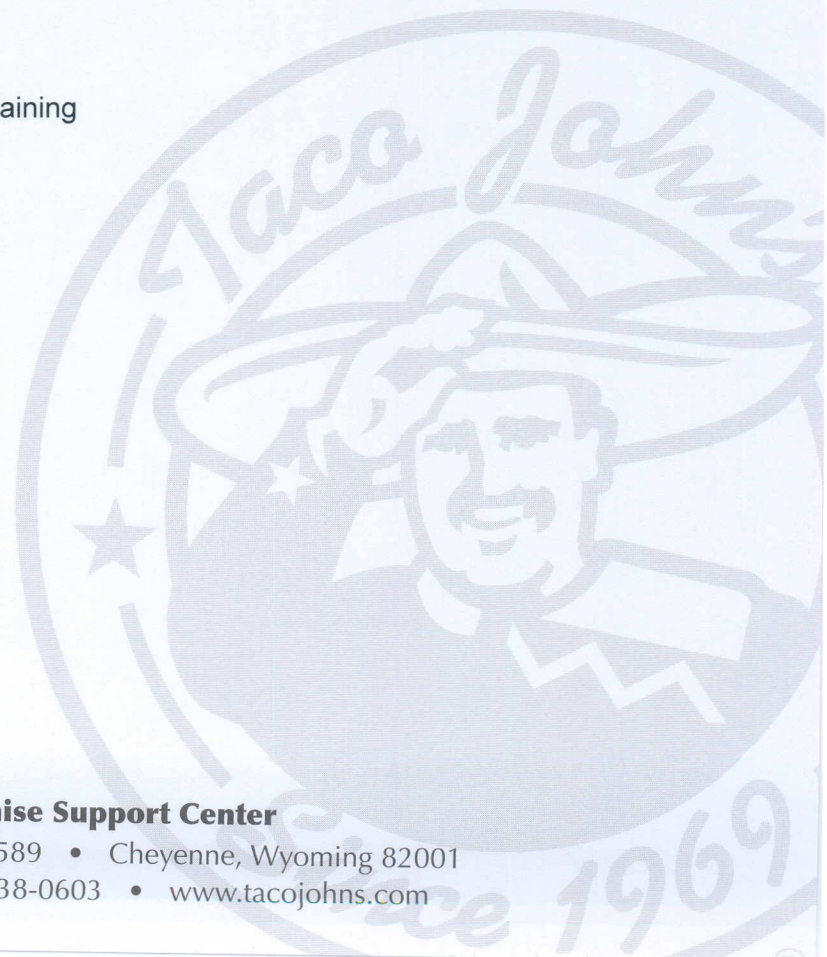

Mike again, thank you.

Regards,

T. Forrest King
Vice President for Human Resources & Training
