Dear Eric:

I want to thank you for your invaluable contribution serving as the keynote speaker at our Davidson Hotels & Resorts Leadership Conference. Your presentation on “Unlocking Potential” was right on target for our attendees of general managers, senior hotel managers, and corporate senior leaders.

Your message on identifying and overcoming our fears was inspiring and challenging, giving us all something to think about. Most importantly, you provided our front-line hotel leaders with great takeaways to help them unlock their potential.

Eric, I would certainly recommend your services to anyone looking for an inspiring, thought provoking speaker. Thank you for your enthusiasm, energy and professionalism.

Best regards,

Patrick Lupsha
EVP & Chief Operating Officer
