To anyone considering Don Yaeger as a speaker:

Don delivered a powerful keynote to the top producers of my company ViSalus Sciences at a meeting in Tampa recently. He effectively crossed over the successful characteristics of world champion athletes to that of world champion entrepreneurs. His stories were so moving that he received three standing ovations in a one-hour speech.

My team members left Don's speech with the recipe for greatness and the desire to take action on the principles he teaches. Don's presentation so inspired our team that we broke sales records over the weekend.

I recommend Don for any team looking to play at a championship level.

Sincerely,
