How to Become a Better Leader, Faster

Leading people is tough, particularly in changing times. Everyone has an opinion on how to lead, and what makes a good leader. So, what is the best way to become a better leader, faster? Ask a leader of leaders. Troy Hazard is a business veteran with twelve companies he has founded, built and sold over 25 years.

His entrepreneurial and leadership excellence was recognized when he was elected Global President of the Entrepreneurs' Organization. This group is comprised of some of the world's greatest business leaders, employing 1.7 million people around the world with combined revenue of $160 billion. In short, Troy has proven himself in one of the toughest leadership roles on the planet.

In this session, Troy will explain why the speed of your personal evolution as a leader has a direct impact on the evolution of your business and those you lead.

Armed with this information you will quickly become more focused, balanced, aware and effective. Troy's presentation delivers real life leadership strategies to maximize your impact as a leader, faster. Learn how to:

- Become aware of your own leadership evolution.
- Lead in truth, not fear.
- Implement the 4 key character traits of a true leader.
- Hire, inspire, and emotionally engage staff.
- Share and create a culture of conscious collaboration.
- Manage personal growth with business growth.
- Lead, with speed!
