Hello, Kari!

So sorry for the delay. I find December to be crazy and relentless with year-end shenanigans and deadlines. And this year is no exception! We had a great time with Galen in Miami. He scored a 4.73 (out of 5.0) and here are the verbatim comments.

Really enjoyed this session. He really made you think about your organizations culture and how you can help to make it better. Loved the exercises we did even though I normally don't like that kind of thing. It was a very energizing session that made for a perfect ending to the conference.

Galen was amazing. I could sit through his presentation over and over

Great job keeping us engaged without slides. Great energy.

He was honestly my favorite speaker and most motivating from the entire conference.

So appreciated that he knew the audience. Did a great job addressing the group's fears so they could fully participate in the exercises. Great exercises for a large group. Very impressed!

I enjoyed this session. The activities will help me to implement a Yes answer.

Talked a little too much. Could have scaled back, done one more activity, and still been awesome
