

Contagious CURRICULUM™

Contagious Curriculum™ gives your leaders and team members a competitive edge! These training classes transfer the knowledge and skills they need to do their job at a dramatically different level of success.

Contagious Curriculums™ designed with your leaders in mind:

Contagious Leadership™ teaches managers to be leaders in ten simple steps including a focus on improving motivation and teamwork.
Leader's Guide available.

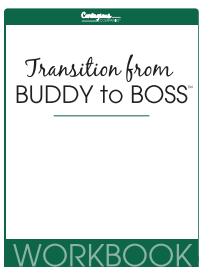

Contagious Collaboration™ builds teams. Help them get through those stages of development faster and get to performing at much higher levels with this powerful course.

Contagious Confidence™ boosts employee self-esteem, self-awareness, and productivity, while more effectively managing the voices in your head.

Make Difficult People Disappear™ removes the need to deal with difficult people teaching employees and leaders how to accept, understand and work with everyone even better.
Leader's Guide available.

Transition from Buddy to Boss™ teaches new managers how to transition from being a peer to now managing their peers.
Leader's Guide available.

Contagious Communication™ helps you get your message across, speak in a language others understand and make sure you're sending the message you want them to hear.

Leaders who complete these training courses are far more accountable, productive, emotionally intelligent and equipped to develop employees who stay longer, complain less, and produce more. Surely as their leader, you know how to lead, communicate, collaborate and more, but...

If they're tired of listening to you, they're not learning from you!
