Having worked with hundreds of corporate groups worldwide, I've come to understand that my clients benefit from my involvement in 3 ways:

#1 Flexibility: I work easily within themes, time constraints, specific audio-visual specs, and challenging layouts. I am comfortable in small meeting rooms at breakout sessions for 20 attendees, and in arenas at general sessions for 20,000 attendees.

#2 Customization: I tailor my material and performance for maximum impact on your attendees - whether that means delivering a quick inside joke for your group, or bringing out more significant conference themes that resonate with your corporate culture.

#3 Experience: I have 15+ years of on-stage and on-camera experience:

- 1000+ shows with Caesars Entertainment headlining in Las Vegas
- Countless TV spots hosting morning, lifestyle, and entertainment-news shows
- Hundreds of corporate events entertaining, keynote speaking, leading workshops, and hosting

I would like you to think of me as a partner in making your event a success. My goal is for you to say to yourself after this event "how am I ever going to be able to top this next year???" Let's talk about how we can make that happen... together. I'm here to help.

HOST / EMCEE

“JEFF EMCEE'D OUR ENTIRE AWARDS CEREMONY... HE MADE IT OUR BEST EVENT EVER.”

Jeff's experience as both a live on-stage presenter and an on-camera host personality makes him the ultimate “double threat” to host your event. Jeff has hosted every type of corporate event there is -- general sessions, awards banquets, game shows -- for dozens of top companies and associations: Disney, OSHA, Verizon, Caterpillar, Grainger, AAA, Honeywell, Culver's, A&W, Rite Aid, Men's Warehouse, Cisco... the list goes on and on!

Jeff is equally comfortable in front of the camera, with extensive live and taped TV experience. He hosts his own Entertainment- News show “The Weekend in Vegas” on ABC in Las Vegas that films in front of a live audience. The show has featured Imagine Dragons, Dennis Rodman, Mike Tyson, Olivia Newton- John, Eddie Griffin, Wayne Newton, Eva Longoria, George Lopez, Carlos Santana, and others. He is also a regular guest host of “The Morning Blend” morning show on ABC in Las Vegas.

Corporate events require an Emcee who is confident, polished, and able to adapt to on-site changes. Every event brings challenges, many of which are unavoidable-- sessions run long, speakers finish early, tech malfunctions happen... Jeff has established himself as someone who not only makes those situations work, but actually thrives in the last-minute environment of live events. Jeff has 75 minutes of clean, corporate-appropriate material he can draw from to intersperse through a single event, or a multi-day conference to keep your attendees engaged every step of the way.

*Consider having Jeff host your event on-stage, and have him capture moments on-camera during breaks and at social events to create recap and promotional videos. In this way Jeff truly becomes the face of your event / conference and ties everything together.

HOST / EMCEE

Jeff's Hosting X-Factor: Jeff's "10,000 hours" of hosting / performing experience has equipped him to handle any situation that may arise at an event. Having someone as experienced and confident as Jeff to run the show is truly priceless.

ENTERTAINMENT WITH A MESSAGE

Jeff's journey from juggling in his kitchen as a child to headlining in Vegas with own TV show is naturally inspiring and his passion is naturally contagious, so it's no wonder that he is often asked to present his "entertainment with a message" as a keynote speaker. Through a series of strategic "pivots" along his career path, Jeff shares how he has continuously leveraged what he has had to flip hardships into assets. His story of fighting through the cutthroat politics of the entertainment industry is eye-opening, humorous, and powerful.

Challenging the audience to view where they are personally and professionally as a new type of starting point, Jeff enables a renewed sense of passion, purpose, and gratitude in attendees' work and lives. Attendees walk away more engaged with what they do, and why they do it. Jeff is the perfect presenter for companies who look beyond numbers to the importance of caring for "the whole person."
