

Dear Jeff,

I wanted to send you a quick letter to let you know what a huge impression you've made on me and my clients. The mere 20 minutes you had to perform at our Showcase left a HUGE impression. You had the entire audience in stitches for the entire 20 minutes of your performance. I actually found it difficult to breathe at times I was laughing so hard! You are a true professional that blends physical comedy, with jokes, audience participation and excitement. The rush to book you after you performed was overwhelming! I can't tell you how impressed I was by your performance.

Not only were you amazing at our Showcase, but my client who booked you for their meeting shortly after the event had nothing but rave reviews. You are a superstar at what you do Jeff, but you make those who book you look like superstars as well! I truly believe you rank among some of the best talent on the circuit these days. Thanks for making me "look good," and for making every one of your audiences leave with side aches from laughing so hard and smiles on their faces.

I look forward to working with you on our next event!

All the best,

Dear Jeff:

Thank you very much for being a part of our A&W Franchisee Convention in Orlando last week. Your high energy and very entertaining show was the highlight of our opening day program. You were "just what the doctor ordered" for getting our meeting started on the "right foot". Our corporate presentations were enhanced greatly by the fun you provided. We look forward to another time when we can do it again.

Thank you!

Dear Jeff:

Wow! What a performance. The energy, excitement and your delivery to members of the Associated General Contractors, Utah Chapter was nothing less than amazing! We were more than happy by the way you were able to engage our audience, keep them entertained, and literally laughing out loud was more than we could have ever expected.

As a meeting planner for nearly 30 years, it is so nice to know that when you book an entertainer, he is truly a professional in every way. The "homework" you did in preparation for our event, the attention to detail and the way you made it easy for our staff to work with and coordinate with you and your team were just terrific.

Thanks for helping make our 90th annual event such a big success. We can and will recommend you often and without hesitation.

Sincerely,

On December 10, 2011 Jeff Civillico entertained for our company Christmas Celebration. He was very energetic, creative and man can he juggle!!! The show was great, we liked that he involved people from the audience, both young people and adults, as everyone down deep wants to be the center of attention! He kept the audience's attention and received rave reviews from everyone... which is sometimes tough with our group,

Jeff is very easy to work with and we would consider inviting him back to Nebraska anytime! We will be recommending him to other companies for entertainment.

Comedy in Action
Las Vegas, NV

Dear Jeff:

WOW – comedy in action is a severe understatement!

I had the pleasure of seeing you perform at The Flamingo Hotel in Las Vegas last week and you definitely stole the show. Your unique blend of clean comedy, amazing stunts and interactive audience participation is the winning trifecta for any convention. I was especially impressed by your high-energy and ability to verbally volley with the audience while simultaneously maintaining your balance while juggling various implements with seeming ease – astounding!

Jeff, I look forward to bringing you to the platform for my clients across the board and will recommend you with complete confidence. Your Comedy in Action program is the perfect addition for any organization wanting to begin or end their event on a high note. People absorb information most effectively when they are in a good mood, and your show certainly sets the stage for that. Kudos to you!

Dear Jeff:

Atlantis Paradise Island and the Guest Activities Team would like to extend our gratitude! Your performances are spot on and are always well received. We continue to look for great family entertainment for our guests and that is something we can definitely count on from you.

Jeff, you are a joy to work with and are so very personable. You have a great stage presence; you're very talented, entertaining and at the same time continue to be very professional.

It is always such a pleasure working with you.

Funfully yours,

Auntie Anne's, Inc. hired Jeff Civillico Corporate Entertainer and MC to perform at our 2009 International Convention. It was great to work with Jeff throughout the process from start to finish, and most importantly, Jeff delivered when the time came.

Prior to our function, Jeff took the time to meet with our event coordinators to learn more about our goals for the convention and our company.

Jeff was a delightful addition to the program line-up and our guests (participatory and onlookers alike), will remember this part of the program with a smile!

Sincerely,

"Jeff adapted his program on-the-fly to adjust to last-minute schedule changes that were made on our end. Even though his performance time was reduced, Jeff knew exactly which parts of his program to hit in order to get the biggest laughs out of our audience. By the time our first presenter was on stage, Jeff had our group warmed up and ready for the night's festivities!"

- Ryan Olah

"Jeff did a great job of engaging the crowd and setting the stage for an evening of fun. I was impressed that he took the time to research our brand and incorporate some of our core messaging into his act. This subtle nod to our brand personality was appreciated by the audience as well. I have to admit that I was nervous watching him juggle a bowling ball and sword...but I couldn't stop watching!"

Jeff,

Just a short note to thank you for making our Christmas party a success. As we spoke after your performance, I was leery when Steve told me he had booked a juggling comedian. It didn't take long after the start of your show to ease any apprehension I might have had. I have talked to number of our members present that night and they have agreed with me. I would recommend your act to anyone for any occasion!

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is to recognize Jeff Civillico for his valuable contribution as host and emcee of the first annual Genting International Magic Festival.

As co-producer of the event, I was extremely happy with Jeff's performance. He is a bright young talent with a very diverse and mature skill set. He is an expert juggler, a wonderful stage personality and a funny comedian. Most importantly for our event, he was able to do a great job in the moments that required improvisation to deal with delays and glitches that sometimes occur in live shows with many moving parts.

Jeff was a huge hit with our audience, particularly the younger crowd. He is also very photogenic, so we featured his image in many of our advertising pieces, both video and still. He has received a lot of positive feedback on the Internet via audience blogs.

By virtue of his talent, preparation and experience Jeff is definitely poised to become a major force in the entertainment industry and we congratulate him on doing such a terrific job in our show. We feel fortunate to have had him on our team.

Please feel free to call or contact me directly should you wish to receive any more feedback about Jeff Civillico.

I was extremely pleased with Jeff Civillico's performance at our annual Caterpillar Electric Power Rental Meeting. This year's meeting was held at Rosen Shingle Creek in Orlando, Florida. For three days, Rosen Shingle Creek, provided the setting for a series of strategy discussions, coupled with hands-on product demonstrations for over one hundred and fifty attendees. The annual event culminated with a large group dinner and a performance by entertainer Jeff Civillico. Jeff had a great mix of audience interaction and solo stunts to provide our attendees with constant enjoyment throughout the evening. Jeff was very flexible with the start time and even adapted to some difficult wind conditions. Jeff exceeded all of our attendees' expectations and provided the perfect end to a great meeting.

Dear Jeff,

Enthusiastic! Vibrant! Exuberant! Energetic! Hilarious! Entertaining!

Those are just some of the words that describe your show. When I decided to bring you in for a big church event I had no doubt that you would entertain and engage, but I had no idea of the “blow me away” factor you would bring. People were talking about your show for weeks, and actually made me look pretty good too, because everyone kept saying, “Where did you find that guy? He was great!”

Jeff, your family-filled show was so much more than we had hoped for. And the audience participation had everyone involved from kids to adults. This was literally a show for everyone!

It's hard to find shows that are as high a quality as yours that are still family-friendly. Your show wildly exceeded that expectation! When I think about my list of people that I would bring back to our church you are at the top of the list.

Thanks for blowing us away!

Greetings Jeff,

As the Certified Corporate Concierge for Hughes Center, a 1.5 million sq. ft. mixed-use Class A office complex, I am responsible for implementing a monthly tenant event for our customers who work at the 68-acre mixed-use campus. Uniqueness establishes Hughes Center apart from everyone else.

So, it was a natural fit to match your amazing talents and energy to one of our events, which I did in April, 2013.

From the planning stages to the completion of your performance, you were the ultimate professional. Paperwork was an ease to complete, conversations accomplished everything in question, and the day of the event was primarily stress-free.

Your performance reflected the ability you have to make things appear as if they are "in the moment" and not planned or rehearsed, although one knows they have to be...no one has THAT kind of talent without lots of practice. Your personality is so natural with the audience and your ability to engage them and timing to their responses is an art that only those who are finely tuned in to their audiences can master.

By the end of the two, 1-hour performances you did at Hughes Center, you had turned what started out as polite laughter into displays of uncontrollable, eye-watering howls! The energy level and content of your comedy, juggling and talent all combined, is unmatched. The audiences really appreciated how you included them in your rapport and to coordinate that, while juggling and riding a unicycle requires impeccable timing and talent, both of which you possess so naturally.

Hughes Center has always provided their customers with unparalleled amenities and I am glad to say, we have accomplished that once again, with the talents and energy in the performance of Jeff Civillico.

With Kindest Regards,

Jaci Zweig

To Whom It May Concern:

As a producer myself, I know how very busy someone like yourself can be... but I wanted to take a moment and write an open letter to other show producers and talent buyers regarding a wonderful entertainer, Mr. Jeff Civillico, whom I've recently met and believe could possibly be a wonderful asset to any entertainment operation. Let me make it clear that I am not representing Mr Civillico at all. Here's a brief background of my recent introduction and association with him...

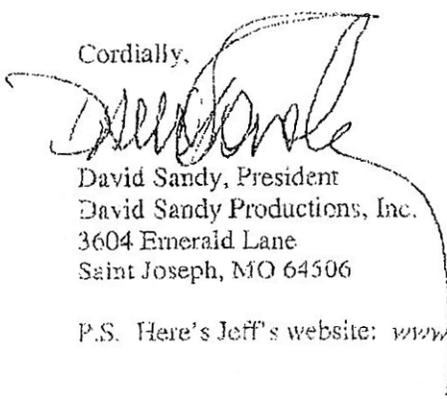

In addition to producing touring shows, festivals and corporate events, I operate and produce all of the shows at the Music City Centre theater in Branson, Missouri. Most recently (November 15-25, 2007), I produced a two-week international festival at the mega-resort, Genting - City of Entertainment, (www.genting.com.my) just outside of Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. This event included two production shows, one in a 6,000 seat venue and the other in an 1,800 seat theater. I needed a host for the second show who could keep the show moving and entertaining... someone who exhibited a stage personality that was likeable, spontaneous and professional.

Another producer friend of mine in Florida suggested Mr. Civillico, a professional host/comedian/juggler. I must say that I couldn't have made a better choice. Even at the youthful age of 25, Jeff has years of experience with Disney cruise lines, Holland-America, the QE-2, Princess, and many others. At the very young age of 15, he was awarded the gold medal in his class at the 1998 International Jugglers' Association World Championships. However, please understand that Jeff is far more than a comedy juggler... he's an incredible host and personality. He's very funny, he sings, he moves well on stage and he has an impeccable sense of timing and spontaneity on stage.

After watching him host ten shows for me in Malaysia, I immediately realized what a unique wonderful talent this young man possesses as an emcee, host, personality, entertainer, etc. Please understand that I am not representing Jeff in any way and I have nothing to gain from any potential opportunities. It's simply that I do recognize incredible talent... and Jeff certainly falls into that category.

If you have any questions, please call me directly at 816-233-4177.

Cordially,

David Sandy, President

"I recently had the opportunity to work with Jeff at the 86th annual Oklahoma State FFA Convention and on behalf of the over 12,000 members and guests in attendance I wanted to say, WOW! Jeff has an ability and skill that is only matched by comedic timing and interaction with the audience. As a spectator I found myself clutching in laughter and amazed by his performance. As an event planner I can say that Jeff is a joy to work with. He is professional, easy going and will do everything he can to make sure the client is pleased. I have no reservations in recommending Jeff to any of my clients. Great Job."

To Team Jeff Civillico:

Jeff has been a tradition for our new resident orientation at Florida Hospital for the last 3 years and we expect to have him for many years to come. He brings an amazing energy to the group with his various ice breakers. He teaches the residents how to juggle with scarves and then graduates them to real juggling balls. We have told our residents that they must display this skill to officially graduate from the program. His charisma is magical and brings the entire group together. His show entertains everyone from a child to a retired physician. Jeff is quick-witted and energetic and creates a hysterical, family-friendly show. His presence is always our highest rated part of the orientation. I have loved working with Jeff and can't wait to plan our orientation for next year!

Dear Jeff Civillico's office:

Jeff Civillico is 100% without a doubt laugh-out-loud hysterical. Not only did Jeff's energy wake up the audience, but he was so engaging and so involved - there wasn't a single person in the room not sitting at the edge of their seat laughing and having an absolute ball! The only bad thing about Jeff was for the speaker who had to follow him. Jeff is genuinely talented and extremely entertaining! I don't say this very often, but Jeff is actually an entertainer that is "all-things for all-people". He is universally funny & clean - no matter your age, occupation or gender - you will TRULY enjoy Jeff's show! I am already looking forward to the next time I see Jeff on stage! BIG thanks to you Jeff Civillico! Laughing hard like that will make me live longer - so watching you is ultimately good for my health!

Thank you!

I was introduced to Jeff Civillico's Comedy in Action show on a Disney vacation where he provided an unforgettable performance. When I discovered he leads interactive team building workshops in addition to his comedy show I knew Jeff was just what we needed to enhance our new Resident Physician orientation.

I spoke with Jeff prior to the event about our organization and what we hoped to achieve during the day through his sessions. On the day of the event he was able to easily jump in between talks of policies and procedure, giving everyone a lighthearted break and a chance to laugh...a lot. He combined topics of communication and life balance with hands on juggling lessons. Now we have not only a group of new physicians, but we also have a few "carnies" on our team.

Family and staff were invited to join the physicians in the evening for a social event including Jeff's full comedy show. The evening was a HUGE hit. Every single person in the room that night was engaged in the performance and weeks later his act is still the topic of discussion and laughter around the office.

I highly recommend Jeff for any group event. He was wonderful to work with from my very first contact. His communication, flexibility and professionalism made my planning a breeze.

Thank you again Jeff, I look forward to working with you in the future.

Jeff,

I wanted to drop you a quick note to thank you for your incredible performance at our recent Convention!

Right off the bat, you were professional and flexible and effortlessly utilized your comedic genius, sarcastic wit, use of props and impeccable timing to keep the audience in stitches the entire time. More importantly, you achieved our goal, left our members with a smile and set the tone for a truly fun and memorable event.

Dear Brian,

Thank you so much for your referral of Jeff Civillico as an entertainer for us. He was a big hit at the grand opening of our Expo Hall at the HR Florida State Conference on August 18. Jeff had the audience in the palm of his hand from the moment he started his act. We are sorry that Jeff could only do a small portion of his whole act due to our timing constraints and the need to accommodate our vendors. I'd gladly invite him back to do an entire full length routine for us!

Our conference, attended by 1200 HR professionals this week, just celebrated our 31st anniversary. It is a challenge to come up with new and different ideas for entertainment options that appeal to our entire group. This clearly was a great choice and I am still getting comments about what a great event we hosted. Jeff was a great choice for the Expo Hall. I am certain that several of our HR attendees from various organizations will be calling you to get booking information on Jeff for their local and regional events.

Brian, thanks for making such a great referral to us. The service we've received from Expert Performers has been flawless and we've clearly raised the bar for HR Florida events going forward!

Dear Jeff,

I just wanted to let you know that you were the perfect entertainer/emcee for the Tribute awards banquet at IHCA's 61st Annual Convention and Trade Show. During your performance, as I looked around the room, there was not one person who did not have a big smile on their face, and most were doing more than smiling...they were laughing out loud and nearly falling out of their chairs! I heard several comments afterwards about how much they enjoyed your show.

You were also exemplary in your emcee duties. Hosting an event to pay tribute to the well-deserving staff and volunteers of long term care facilities is such a small gesture, so having an emcee who takes this seriously just makes it more special.

I personally want to thank you for being so easy to work with. Even the video production company commented that you were the best emcee they had worked with at this event.

All I can say is a great big "Thank You" from the IHCA staff and the Tribute attendees.

To Whom It May Concern:

Our parish recently had the privilege of having Jeff Civillico visit our parish for two events. Performing to an audience of 800 people one night and 400 people the following night, Jeff kept the audience connected and thrilled throughout his entire presentation. This was an amazing feat as his audience consisted of ages 4 to 90! Jeff is an extremely talented young man who has found a way to engage, entertain, and fill the room with laughter. He displayed over and over again absolutely amazing acts of incredible skill and wit. We were especially grateful that Jeff has chosen to do “family safe” shows that church groups can be proud of. We would recommend Jeff Civillico to anyone who wants to book a top notch, talented, and very funny entertainer. No one left our event disappointed and they still talk about it!

Thank you,
Deacon David Hendrickson

Jeff Civilico
Comedy in Action

Jeff,

You were part of our 11th annual, black tie awards dinner, in Nashville this month, and this was the 6th time I was charged with producing the show. It's been a commitment of mine to our executive team to continue to raise the bar with entertainment. It gets harder and harder every year.

Having you recommended by two of our best entertainers ever - Mike Rayburn and Jason Hewlett, made it easy to believe we could pull it off this year. Your combination of raw talent, comedy laced with tons of great "improv", and hilarious audience participation brought something we had never experienced before - and people loved it! I believe the laughter is what made your act so memorable amidst 30 others we've chosen over the years.

It was a ton of fun to work with you, and watch you "bring it" to our best people. I'd recommend you highly. Thank you for helping to make this event one of the best parts of my role with our company.

Regards,

To anyone who is considering hiring Jeff Civillico:

Prepare to have a blast!

We were very fortunate to have Jeff perform at our company Holiday Party in December. To say he was entertaining would be an understatement. Jeff had the entire crowd roaring. He has an amazing ability of getting the whole audience involved and invested in his performance.

We first saw Jeff perform on our family vacation aboard the Disney Magic. We were quickly hooked, taking in both his family and adult shows. Coming up with the idea to have him put on a show for our company party turned out to be a brilliant one, as he was the hit of the night.

If there is one obstacle in having Jeff perform at our party, it is that next year it is going to be impossible to top. Each year we pride ourselves in providing wonderful entertainment for our employees. Hands down 2010 was the best so far.

If you have the opportunity to hire Jeff, take it!

Yours truly,

Dear Jeff,

We cannot thank you enough for your incredible performance at our June 2010 comedy event celebrating the annual conference of the International Association of Campus Law Enforcement Administrators in St. Louis, MO. Our colleagues haven't stopped raving about your performance and thanking us for an event of fun and laughter.

Our business is a very serious one. We, and our colleagues, take our responsibility to keep universities, colleges and K-12 schools safe very seriously. Your performance allowed our friends to experience a moment of levity during the important presentations and discussions of the conference. You helped us to develop another level of connection with these important people in our lives.

We are grateful to you, and will continue to follow your career with much excitement so that we can tell our friends and family in years to come that we were blessed to "know you when...."

Jeff,

Thank you so much for your involvement in the InterContinental Hotels Group US Sales & Marketing Meeting at the Venetian|Palazzo in Las Vegas on April 26-29, 2011. Our guests LOVED you!

Your "Wake 'Em Up" act as our meeting opener was not only a hit, but was still being talked about well into the remainder of the meeting! Your skills in juggling, balancing and comedy are fantastic and your personality was just right for this upbeat and energetic crowd.

Our collective favorite part of your performance was the "tricycle part" and we are still laughing 'till we hurt about it today! What a great way to incorporate our guests into your show.

Thanks again for helping to make the US Sales & Marketing Meeting a hit and we look forward to the next one!

July 18, 2011

Dear Jeff,

I wanted to take some time to let you know what some of our staff and guests had to say about your recent performance at Eureka Casino Resort. Here are some of the quotes from conversations I've had:

"Best show at the Eureka!" – VIP Guest

"When is he coming back?" – VIP Guest"

"OMG, so funny" – Staff

"Talented" – Staff

"Laughed so hard, my side ached" – VIP Guest

There were so many more, I just can't recall them all!

As for me??? I took all the credit! Told them I found you myself. I would like to say from me – Sincerely...

Professional, off the cuff and as a talent agent who's seen them all... YOU are my favorite!!

How's your schedule for next month?

Dear Jeff,

I wanted to send you a thank you for a great performance. Our National Label group had many laughs at the party. We are still joking with Oliver about helping you balance on the unicycle. One of these days I will find out if Chris can really juggle too.

We appreciate you travelling back to Philadelphia to entertain us. We tried to book you the year before and I am thrilled we were finally able to book you this past year. (I started the process early this past year!)

Thanks again for lightening up the holidays.

Have a healthy and happy New Year,

As Banquet Chair of the Northern California Fraud Investigators Association, California District Attorney's Association, and California Department of Insurance combined Conference at the Hyatt-Monterey in April 2009, I would like to truly thank the both of you for providing the banquet entertainer, Jeff Civillico.

Jeff gave an outstanding performance. Everyone seemed to have a great time and spoke highly of his talents of juggling, comedy, and bringing the audience to participate in the fun. I, myself, was laughing so hard that I will need to see his performance again in the future.

I would be happy to recommend Jeff to those desiring to be fully entertained for their upcoming events.

Dear Jeff:

I just wanted to write you a quick note to thank you for your performance at our annual CNA Honors and Awards Banquet held this year at the Gaylord Palms Resort and Convention Center. Both your high energy and juggling talent certainly amazed everyone and your humor kept us laughing the whole time. It was truly "Comedy in Action" and many of the Center Administrators have requested that we have you return for our annual Patient Support Services Banquet in June 2011. I'll be contacting you soon once a date has been confirmed with the Gaylord Palms.

Again, thank you for making our program special for all those who attended. I wish you the best for success and look forward to having you for an encore performance. I pray that God will always bless you for the laughter you bring into the hearts and lives of others. Have a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

SUBJECT: 2010 A&W Convention, January 28, 2010 in Orlando, FL

Dear Jeff:

Thanks so much for making this years A & W Convention a memorable one! The entertainment you provided added so much energy to the general session.

I really feel a lot of the positive feedback on the overall convention was inspired by your performances. Your comedy set an energized tone for the corporate presentations that followed that day.

Looking forward to the next time we will be able to use your creative talents on another event.

All the best!

To Whom It May Concern:

It is my pleasure to recommend Jeff Civillico to anyone looking for entertainment for their corporate event. Jeff entertained our group at our 2011 Corporate Christmas Party and I can assure you everyone in our group had a great time. I received countless comments from our team members about how he was their favorite entertainer we have had and actually had a few that were physically drained from laughing so much during his performance. His show was high energy, family friendly, and had great audience participation. I would not hesitate to recommend him personally to anyone looking for entertainment for their corporate event.

Dear Jeff:

I just want to thank you again for performing at our Annual Excellence Awards program in Baltimore, MD on March 4, 2013. You are truly an amazing performer who captured the crowd's attention in the very first seconds of entering our stage. Your natural wit, phenomenal skills as a juggler and polished professionalism truly added a level of entertainment that our program has not seen in this annual event.

Perhaps the best part of working with you was your kind and professional manner. You are confident in your own skills and talents, but more importantly you were very focused on meeting the needs of our organization and customizing your performance for our audience. You cared about meeting our needs and ensuring that we had a memorable experience. And we did! The audience loved you from the first moments, and you added an energy to the show that we have not seen in recent years.

I really cannot say enough good things about you and I truly wish you well in all your future endeavors. Thanks again for sharing your talents with us.

Dear Jeff,

You rock! Your performance at our annual PTO Adult Social and Auction, The RBS Follies- An Evening of Comedy and Auction, over one month ago is still being talked about around town. This event has been going on for years and we usually have a comedian or a band. We wanted to try something more participatory and exciting this year. We are so glad we did! You amazed us with your skills and enthusiasm, had the crowd roaring with laughter and helped us raise almost double our goal amount.

Our board unanimously agrees you are the best entertainer we've ever hired for our event and highly recommends you to any group looking for something new and different. You were the best entertainer we ever had come to this event and can not wait to see your performance again! We all thank you for everything you did to make this event such a success!

To whom it may concern,

May I take a moment and share my thoughts and insight on a wonderful performer...
Mr. Jeff Civillico.

Sixth Star Entertainment and Marketing has had the opportunity to utilize Jeff's talents in a number of different venues and productions. These include the Atlantis Resort Paradise Island Bahamas, Busch Gardens Tampa, and the Genting Highlands Resort in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. He has always been a resounding success.

May I just say how impressed I am by Jeff's versatility, stage presence, spontaneity, and ability to connect with a crowd. As a host/master of ceremonies or a headline entertainer, the end result is consistent ...a wonderful performance.

In addition he always a pleasure to work with... a true professional and real team player.

He is our 'first call' - I give Jeff Civillico a hearty endorsement.

Dear Mr. Civillico:

Coming across truly great talent in the world of magic and variety arts is becoming a difficult task in these modern times. To be able to find a performer who not only showcases their time-honed craft in a fresh and exciting manner but who can also command control of a large audience who is not easily entertained is no small feat! Jeff, you have mastered both of these traits and more! It was a pleasure to have you host several of our It's Magic! shows for the 2009 season and we would welcome you back in future seasons to entertain our audiences.

Through 53 years of producing It's Magic!, over 500 world-famous magic and variety performers have graced the stage for our productions. Jeff, you are a truly unique talent who stands out even among this esteemed collection of performers.

Cordially,

Terry Hill

To whom it may concern:

This letter is to recognize Jeff Civillico for his outstanding performance at the Plaza Theatre on April 24th of 2009.

Jeff Civillico is an amazing entertainer! When he performed at The Plaza Theatre in Orlando, he had people crying with laughter. He was easily one of the best comedy acts here to date. A true professional, Jeff is extremely funny on stage, and great to work with off stage.

The doors of The Plaza Theatre are always open to him.

My name is Debbie Brumfield and I am an instructor for the International School of Hospitality (TISOH) for the Art of Concierge class. I have been teaching this class since 2006 and it has paved the way for many students to live their dream of becoming a hospitality professional as a concierge. I asked Jeff to come and speak to my students about his show, the entertainment industry and how concierges play such an integral role in the success of shows and businesses in our city.

Jeff Civillico is not only a funny & amazing performer but he can captivate an audience as a guest speaker as well tailoring his information to the client needs. If that is not enough to intrigue you he is also such a genuinely nice person you just wish the absolute best and abundance of success for him!

To Whomever:

I was delighted with Jeff Civillico's performance at our annual Christmas party. Jeff presented a uniquely entertaining routine filled with youthful exuberance that demonstrated a truly extraordinary comedic talent. Jeff had been introduced to me as a "juggler." And truly he is a most talented juggler. But his juggling is merely a platform for a hilariously interactive show that engages everyone in the audience. Jeff got a much deserved standing ovation from my staff and he was so impressive that we invited him back for a repeat performance the following year.

As a federal executive I needed to tread a careful line to ensure that our entertainment was in no way offensive. Jeff's show was both genuinely funny and squeaky clean. I'm not surprised that he now works for the Disney organization based on his performances.

I am also most proud that Jeff is a native of the Philadelphia area and carries on the tradition of another Philadelphia juggler - in fact a man who was judged literally as the world's best juggler of his time - William Dukenfield. He traveled the world doing the most engaging juggling routines. But he was better known for his comedy and by his stage name - W. C. Fields. Jeff Civillico is truly an outstanding heir of his tradition.

If you are looking for a truly delightful entertainer you can do no better than hire Jeff Civillico!

Sincerely yours,

Dear Jeff,

This is just a short "Thank You" for an amazing performance on April 30 at The Upper Darby Performing Arts Center. Our audience loved every minute of your show with Tim Gabrielson. Both of you had tons of energy and good, clean fun that involved many members of the audience and had everyone laughing and having a great time.

It is a pleasure to present a show that appeals to both adults and children and entertains all equally. You and Tim filled that bill perfectly and created a very special evening of Magic and Comedy in Action!

Greetings,

Our organization had the pleasure of hosting Jeff Civillico as the featured entertainment for a corporate gathering of 900 of our members in early December, 2011.

Onstage, Jeff provides a high-energy, family-friendly show that is laugh-out-loud funny.

In addition to the great show he provides, I found Jeff Civillico to be very organized and easy to work with in advance of our event. He was very accommodating when it comes to his travel schedule and other logistics prior to the show. Both myself, as well as our sound and lighting crew were impressed with his easy-going, yet professional demeanor.

It is without hesitation that I highly recommend him for your next event.
