

What Others Say About Amanda Gore's Sessions:

"Amanda is a wow of wows of speakers. She's enchanting, captivating, brilliantly funny, tenderly charming, heartfelt, genuine, sincere and poignantly authentic and yet she delivers a powerful message that we each want and need to hear. She's unforgettable with her innovative audience involvement techniques...that will give you skills to take home, tell others and start using immediately to better your life, your relationships, your future and finances."

- Mark Victor Hansen, Co-author of the Chicken Soup for the Soul series.

"When Amanda Gore was suggested as a speaker for our sales meeting, I had serious doubts. What could a woman with a physiotherapy background do with a male-dominated, demoralized, fragmented capital equipment sales team coming off a bruising competitive year?... We've used every type of speaker in the past, from star athletes to big-name motivational speakers. Inch for inch, pound for pound and dollar for dollar, Amanda Gore was the best speaking investment we ever made!"

- CEO, Hobart Kitchen Supplies USA

"Amanda Gore was an inspiring, uplifting, informative delight that our members were discussing the entire remainder of the meeting. I cannot impress upon you enough how well she was received. Amanda's presentation was the most audience – inspiring performance we have ever witnessed. I would extend my highest recommendation to Amanda Gore."

- Executive Director, Aluminium Extruders Council

"Meeting planners have to ask themselves if the speaker that they are looking to hire is worth what they paid. I am here to tell any meeting planner who wants to know, the answer is YES. Amanda is worth every penny and about $60,000 more! I have hired speakers who charge $40,000 and more and they did not leave the audience with a fraction of what Amanda did."

- Business and Professional Women USA

"You made such a difference. I spent most of this week out visiting the branches. Wow - it's catching on! Everyone is using the tools you gave them. I make financial decisions every day about how to use our budget wisely. You were the best investment we have made yet. We will earn 'dividends' for a long time."

- VP Wells Fargo Bank

"Amanda Gore is without question the best investment our organisation has made in the last few years, and her message helped connect all attendees with the vision of our hospital. She has an inherent ability to reach a wide variety of people, and this has had a profound impact on the culture of our hospital. We literally had employees wanting to attend her session on all three available days, as many of them said that Amanda's session was the best thing they had ever attended."

- SSM Health Care

You will recall that at the Business Managers conference in the beginning of the year as part of the change mindset objectives was to have the Business Managers sell more of the Insurance products . It is pleasing to note that your presentation had a major impact on the improvement and growth in Insurance sales this year . For the 1st quarter of 2010 compared to the same period in 2009 our Insurance income is up 36%, which is very pleasing particularly in a mature market. We are also pleased to let you all know that we have just had a record month for Ancillary Insurance sales.

For the first time ever, we have surpassed 1000 ancillary policies in a single month. May has just recorded 1047 new ancillary units!

- BMW Group, Financial Services, June 2010

"Amanda was the most dynamic and insightful relationship speaker I've either hired or listened to. I would not have our first meeting of the Northeast Consulting Partners at Deloitte without her. We changed our dates so she could be with us."

- Director, Deloitte USA

Amanda Gore proved to be the best speaker we have ever brought in to speak to our organisation's leadership group. Her very motivational and uplifting style has a way of communicating her message, even to those who are difficult to reach. By the end of the session, she had everyone laughing and truly enjoying the "Amanda Experience"

- Reading Hospital

"I wish I had photographs of some of the things she was able to get our group to do – a group that is normally disinterested in anything not related to insurance. Our group picked up on the fact that while not directly related to insurance, Amanda's discussion of connection, leadership, relationships and positive energy could translate into more business as well as enhancing our personal and professional lives. She was outstanding."

"Our company tends to be very conservative and, truth be told, probably a little difficult to please. We are a tough crowd. There were undoubtedly 'safer' choices than you... I had nothing to worry about. You were hilarious, amazing, touching and unforgettable. I would have thought it unthinkable to have everyone pleased with your performance, but I have literally not heard one negative word!"

"Thank you for the most phenomenal session our conference has ever experienced! Amanda was Superb! Our conference attendees were singing her praises and using her techniques throughout the remainder of the conference, which was another 3 days.

- PAHCOM

"As always, Amanda was a huge hit!! Her important message was delivered with humour and she totally engaged the audience. One of our most cynical delegates said it was 'almost a life changing experience' for him!"

- Howards Storage World

"What a fabulous presentation you gave to our group to close our first day of conferencing !! We need that every time as it was such an energy booster for the night ahead. I still can't believe you had a whole audience of men hugging and singing!! I would never have thought it possible."

- Genesys

I'm just sorry I waited so long to book you for a meeting. Only once in a rare while does a speaker come along who actually affects real change from their 90 minutes on stage. You breathe that rarified air!!

- McDonalds

"Amanda Gore brings a level of energy, enthusiasm, humor, and intelligence far above the conventional 'motivational speaker' you may be seeking for your next meeting. If you want to make your meeting memorable, and I do mean memorable (attendees are still talking about her presentation and message), and send people home on a high note, Amanda is the speaker for you."

- American Association of Diabetes Educators

"After seeing Amanda inspire our top performers at a recent rewards function, we thought her energy, passion and zest for corporate harmony would be just the recipe to get 120 leaders motivated about the future of our business. Amanda sent the group off on a high, ready and willing to embrace our business strategy and take it to their people. Amanda had the hardest to please leaving the forum with a better understanding of how important perceptions are, more skills in emotional intelligence and committed to changing their own, and their teams behaviours. The feedback from our leaders has been overwhelming with comments like "This was the best forum I have ever attended." Amanda is a fantastic corporate speaker and highly recommended."

- Westpac Group, Chief Operating Officer

"I have been a member of MDRT for 29 years and have seen some of the best speakers in the world. None has ever received 3 standing ovations like Amanda Gore."

- President, Million Dollar Round Table

"Amanda, I know we have had many occasions to work together and i look forward to many more opportunities in the future. My personal thank you for the impact you have had on my development as a leader and for the seed you have helped me plant to inspire general managers and owners to success."

-Global Head Focused Service, Hilton Hotels

"Last night at our board meeting, each of our departments reported our status from summer to present. The first thing out of the Director of Maintenance's mouth was how appreciative he and his guys (and ladies) were for "The Speaker" at the beginning of the year. (We say that like we say "The Pope" or "The President" here...LOL). Anyway, he concluded his report with how much he appreciated what Ms. Gore did for his department and the guys just wanted to say thanks. It was so AWESOME!" - Pascagoola School

"Our evaluation tool rates a speaker on a 1-5 scale with 5 being excellent. Your total was 4.95, the highest of any of our previous speakers. Several people changed your score to a 10 or added many pluses next to the scores of 5! The comments were reflective of the impact you had on our staff. Adjectives such as 'awesome', 'excellent' and 'the best' were interspersed with full comments like 'best speaker yet – have her back!'"

- Roper St Francis Health Care

"Your motivation, energy and enthusiasm were absolutely what we needed at the end of a very long 3 day conference. I couldn't have asked for anything better. I must say, I have received countless Ta Da's from my peers and colleagues for putting on such a great employee meeting. Really makes one feel very good."

- Sabre Holdings

"Audiences who heard Amanda more than 2 years ago. still talk about her and use principles from her presentations."

- Sonic Corporation

"Thank you for enabling a team building event to culminate in a group of people who were just beginning to warm up to one another, walking out of the room really caring for each other."

- Director Organisational Development, GlaxoSmithKlein

"I don't think the impact you have had on our organisation can be measured in any formal way. There are no metrics. It's in the hearts of those who met you and the majority of them are still with us and waiting for you to come back to do "Amanda, The Sequel."

- Crate and Barrel

"You rocked our world, Amanda. No one has ever had such a deep, lasting impact on our lives. You've given us a timeless gift."

"You'll be very pleased to know that your wonderful gestures and sayings have really caught on in my own department. I also overheard someone else ask the other "What's the Best Thing that's Happened to You Today!" and they are all learning to "Build a Bridge and Get Over It" when things happen and there's no sense in holding onto it! I'm sure the same thing is going on in our sales offices across the US! You are a gift that keeps on giving! You were right...it has given them another language to use that connects them and puts laughter back into the workplace!"

- MetLife

"Until I saw a room full of President's linking hands and whistling through Always Look on the Bright Side of Life with my own eyes, I wouldn't have actually believed it. Your session survey results were great."

- Young Presidents Organisation

"Amanda Gore, you are an inspiration! Verosol has never had a sales conference like this one. Despite all of the laughs, and metaphors, your messages were very clear and hard hitting. Success in business is strongly influenced by people and how they interact together. Amanda, your session set the scene for one of the most successful conferences we have ever had. Thank you so much."

- Managing Director, Verosol (Aust) Pty Ltd

"The critiques that I previewed gave you the highest of ratings. I was worried that the presentation would be too long for this group to sit through, but everyone thought you should have had more time. Figure that out! I did a presentation at one of our larger companies yesterday and the folks that attended your session raved about you. So you made me look good too!"

- Cendant Corporation

"Congratulations on such a memorable presentation - it's an accomplishment to see so many corporates zooting each other. A first for me!"

- Westpac

"I had a workshop straight after the breakfast with some of our Statewide senior directors and the feedback was fantastic. One I have to share - we have this very cynical senior leader that had a powerpoint presentation to do - and he kept doing "tada" throughout. At the end he was zooting everyone!! So in a nutshell, I think you made a positive impact in fact I KNOW YOU DID."

- Queensland Health

"Yes, it's sometimes tough measuring ROI on attitude and behavior. Please feel free to have any client call me and I'll be glad to talk with them regarding the impact that you had on us. There are many things that we still embrace of yours. Our employees seemed to (and continue to) take life a bit easier, not stress so much and enjoy their jobs."

- Travis Credit Union

"We, as most leaders in healthcare, operate in a very corporate culture but sometimes someone in a leadership position needs to step a little outside that mold just to see what happens. Thanks to Amanda, I will be that person in my organisation."

- Geisinger Health System

"My client was looking for a speaker to address work/life balance issues for a group of sales executives challenged by a lot of change in the organisation. They were limited by their budget and weren't happy with the speakers in their price range. I suggested Amanda and convinced them to spend more than their budget would give them a return that couldn't be measured in dollars. They hired her and have never been happier – I have a client for life! Amanda is what we refer to in the bureau business, "a guaranteed success – each and every time!"

- Speakers Bureau in the USA

"In a word, she was superb, funny, charming, engaging. She had the audience on the edge of their seats. I have been in association management for 15 years and I've never experienced anything quite like it."

- VP Programmes, Society of Industry and Office Realtors

"I can say unequivocally that as a result of your presentation, our people are not blaming others for this market; they're dealing with adversity the only way they can ... with grit, determination, clear goals, daily work activities ... and a good sense of humor. Thanks for helping us all press our internal GO buttons!"

- Reichart Real Estate

"If the ever was a time for me to take a Ta Da its now, and your presentation was definitely a crowning moment of our conference. The messages you hit were perfect, and I cannot believe the changes I am seeing in the membership and our team. One of my staff dropped into a pharmacy yesterday afternoon to find the Pharmacist in floppy ears and the retail manager wearing the perky version. Who would ever believe it!"

- Sigma Pharmaceuticals

"Amanda Gore is SENSATIONALWatching her wave her wand of magic across the whole conference room... positively igniting an energy of laughter and happiness is nothing short of miraculous. Amanda is the consummate professional – you absolutely know her presentation will be the show stopper for the event! And she is.... Every single time!"

- Carole Gregso, Conference Business Manager, NESAs Australia, 2010

"I can't tell you the positive impact your 90 minutes had on the entire conference. It was like all the barriers and hierarchy were broken down and our people felt so much more comfortable about accepting their weaknesses, and not highlighting deficiencies of others. It was such a positive event, with lots of TA DA's and zoots flying around throughout. I even greeted the guests yesterday wearing the sparkly ears which went down a treat. Thanks again Amanda for all your kind words and for a wonderful presentation, it really did have a significant impact on our people and culture."

- Origin

"A Sunday morning presentation immediately following a really big Saturday evening function is a tough gig at the best of times. Amanda Gore thoroughly educated and invigorated all 450 attendees with her lively and spirited presentation setting the tone for the remainder of the day. Amanda changes perceptions and leaves people much more aware of the impact they have on everyone around them. Great value. I would confidently recommend Amanda to any conference organiser looking for a big lift for their audience."

- Eyecare Plus

It was not a surprise to see that you were the highest rating speaker at the SOLGM Conference in Palmerston North last September. Your keynote address rated 3.8 out of 4! Excellent!!!!

Here are some of the comments we received: (from engineers!)

"Amanda's approach to motivation was not only fun but provided a valuable learning experience."

"Amanda Gore was in a class of her own - absolutely top class!"

"I have seen a large number of "inspirational speakers" at conferences over the years and Amanda was easily the best."

"wow, Amanda Gore - worth attending just for that"

"Amanda Gore was fantastic amusing and practical - Love to see her back ."

- SOLGM

"Your presentation to our group was absolutely fantastic, and the background chatter about Wellness still echoes around the walls. The feedback from many of the delegates has been absolutely overwhelming. In choosing the theme, I simply thought that it was very important to all of us - and for such an important theme we simply needed to have the very best presenter available."

- Institute of Surveyors

"Amanda's engaging presentation was the perfect way to end the first business day at our national conference. Thank you again for a stand out presentation. You're still the best!"

- Meeting planner

"Amanda took up my challenge of heading up day 2 of our Sales Kickoff conference. And after the year we had and the celebrations that ensued the previous night, that was no mean feat! I am very please to say that after Amanda's Taadaa's, "EXCELLENT'S and Magic Wands, I had 180 enthused, vibrant and charged up salespeople. They left the session singing, smiling and even some were dancing!!

The rest of the day was a high-energy and constructive session that I would never have imagined possible, she is brilliant! I have never received so many votes of thanks and expressions of gratitude for an event in my career, and I put a lot of that down to Amanda's energy and smiley faces!! I even walked past the Melbourne Sales meeting on Tuesday and they were wearing their smiley faces and standing up yelling..."EXCELLENT" and they were replaying Amanda AGAIN!"

- Managing Director, CA Pacific

"Amanda's session lifted the mood and left attendees energised to a point that they were literally singing and dancing in the aisles. We were greatly impressed by Amanda's preparation and the effort she put in to understanding our business in order to adapt her presentation to suit our audience."

- CEO, Hofondo Homes

"Amanda is a gem – she not only connected with our 2500 delegates but she took them on a rollercoaster of laughter and enlightenment."

- Nigel Champion, Executive Director, Australian Fitness Network

"Amanda, we needed a high energy session to end a mentally tiring 2 day conference, and WOW, did you deliver!! The audience was jumping out of their skins leaving the conference and everyone was saying that it was the perfect way to finish the event."

- Bob Walters, Executive Director, Leading Property Managers of Australia.

I was lucky enough to be at an industry conference recently where Amanda was presenting. Wow what a great session!

With a delivery and timing that any stand up would envy, her thought provoking message was always engaging. The crowd hung on her every word and heartily followed her lead through a series of hilarious interactions with the person beside them.

Her infectious and vibrant style left a truly joyful, poignant and lasting impression on all there. I'd run, not just walk, to see her again.

- Tony Anthony | Practice Leader Occupational Health and Safety Management Systems

It was a pleasure having you and 'boy' did you deliver. The initial feedback was great and we expect the same result on the overall feedback. The results will be sent to you in the next few weeks.

On behalf of HRP and our delegates, I would like to thank you so much for being a part of the conference this year. Your topic was timely and compelling, providing our delegates with truly cutting edge inspiration.

- Deta Constantine, HRP

"I had the pleasure of attending a conference session run by Amanda at the National Rewards Group Conference in 2010. Amanda led the final keynote of the conference and in the space of just a few short minutes had a group of (mostly) stuffy remuneration experts leaving their self consciousness at the door. Amanda has a great style that is based on solid research but is both engaging, funny, entertaining and extremely insightful. She is able to achieve rapid shifts in attitude in large groups through her unique style! It was certainly an enjoyable and memorable experience!"

- Richard Frye ENERGEX

"SOLGM hired Amanda Gore as keynote speaker at our Annual Conference -- not once, but twice. She delivered an engaging, effective and highly spirited presentation on leadership at our 2009 conference. What a presentation! At the end of the 1.5 hour presentation in the morning after the conference dinner -- she got the delegates up on their feet, hugging, smiling and sending zoot zoot to one another. During our briefing prior to conference, I told her that she may have a hard time engaging because of the profile of our audience. Boy was I wrong! We had to bring her back the following year to do a follow up on the presentation. And she did exactly the same in 2010, despite having an ear infection.

Amanda is an excellent speaker to work with. She is very professional and would go beyond her duties to help you when you have event crisis -- impromptu activities, late speakers, etc. What I also like (which I don't normally see in other speakers) is that she actually attended most part of the conference which was valued by delegates and organisers."

- Janice Nadew, SOLGM

"I met Amanda Gore in 1990 when I was in the Speaking Industry. I can't recommend Amanda highly enough. Her message (always so succinct and very close to her brief) always addresses the theme, her delivery is spectacular - so fresh and different, her content is always on trend and her presentations make the audience laugh. Amanda is always the perfect speaker. I have now been saying for 20 years that Amanda Gore is the best female speaker in Australia - and that fact hasn't changed. She only gets better and more vibrant as time passes."

- Catherine Crawford, SSgA Australia

"Amanda is one of the top speakers in the world - and the reason for that is that she connects with people's deep emotions. If you ever have the opportunity to hire Amanda, she will be the highlight of your conference or meeting. Amanda has also taught me how to be a much better speaker myself with her generous coaching."

- Craig Rispin | Futurist & Innovation Expert Award-Winning Keynote Speaker, Author and Thought Leaders Mentor

"Amanda was a catalyst to launch our RAC Leadership Development Workshop event to new heights. I was so excited to hear that she was the Keynote for the LDW that year where I helped lead the event, and she nailed it. Having seen her in 2001 for the first time, she continues to spark the energy for an event and help to flourish. Good On Ya Amanda!"

- Mark Shinn, MAS, Incentives West

"Amanda Gore was by far one of the most popular guest speakers at The Coffee Club International Convention 2010.

Amanda blew us all away with her extremely entertaining, encouraging and motivating speech presented in a fashion that only Amanda Gore can do!

Still to this day our staff members are quoting her quirky sayings around the office and in turn mirroring the positiveness that was associated with her presentation.

Amanda has such a zest for life and is very passionate about her work which was reflected not only throughout her presentation but while she was hosting our prestigious awards evening.

She managed to capture everyone's attention and filled the room with laughter as well as many other emotions. It was quite amazing to see all of our delegates arm in arm singing "Always look on the bright side of life" I don't know how she did it - but she did, if the opportunity to use Amanda Gore ever arises again I would have no hesitation in doing so".

- John Lazarou, Director, The Coffee Club Franchising

"Amanda is a leading authority in Occupational Health and Wellness. She provides wonderful concepts in positive business communications and managing stress. I highly recommend Amanda's materials as it will benefit your organization as it has my clients. Thank you Amanda for your entertaining approach and easy to learn concepts."

- Hanif Ladha, Director, Successful Leadership Inc/Crestcom International

"I had the pleasure of attending Amanda Gore's presentation at a leadership conference sponsored by Burger King Corp several years ago. Her presentation was so insightful regarding the dynamics between parents, their children, and how those behaviors show up in the workplace. Her presentation was so enjoyable, humorous and insightful that it was the most attended key note speaker event ever for Burger King Leadership. I would highly recommend her for any organization or group."

- Carmen Ferme- Communications for Generations, Field Training Specialist, Burger King

"Amanda Gore addressed our National Conference on the 13th of May 2011. The content presented "hit the mark" in terms of the messaging and support we wanted to extend to members. The feedback we got from members included:

- "The best presenter I've ever seen"

- "Has given me a new and exciting way to view the world"

- "Wonderful entertainment and an even better message"

Personally, I found Amanda's presentation style uniquely entertaining, comical and emotionally charged. Amanda's ability to impart depth understanding of human behaviour created a warm connectivity and sense of team among a diverse group of individuals".

- Don Knapp, CEO, Australian University Sport

"Amanda is a fabulous speaker who is well respected amongst her peers in the speaking industry. I would have confidence that Amanda would inspire, enlighten, and teach others. She has built a great business and achieved success in an industry who's top performers are predominantly male. I'd also add she's a wonderful person."

- David Goldsmith, New York State NSA Founder and President for 4 Years, National Speakers Association

"Having been Key Note Speaking, Training and Facilitating in many countries and for hundreds of Corporate Organisations around the world for more time than I am willing to expose in print, I have had the very good fortune to have worked with, watched, studied, model and even at times co-presented with some very remarkable presenters, communicators, entertainers and educators. Many of whom I stand in awe of and marvel at their gifts, their talent, their craft, their art and their indefinable magic. I am deeply grateful to them all.

Of all of those people there is one name, one remarkable human being who has been there from the start, who very early on provided me with a new reference point for what is possible and has continued through her devotion to her craft to show me and many others a new way and another level of presenting and relating to audiences for us all to follow and aspire to. She is Amanda Gore.

Amanda's capacity to continuously explore, refinement, challenge, create innovative ways to not only get the information out, across and to make it memorable in a way that people are still making references to her work and key messages years later, is truly unique and remarkable.

I know nobody, any where in the world who makes their presentation both exciting, energising, entertaining, emotionally captivating, universally relevant, deeply memorable and hilariously funny. Most of us mere mortals strive to get some of these features into our presentation. Amanda gets all of them in every presentation, every time! I know no one else who does that. She brings new meaning to the words "UNIQUELY TALENTED".

Amanda has this uncanny ability to take the hardest, most complex issues and present them in the simplest, easy to understand manner that makes it possible for every one to "get it".

Of the many things that I have observed and admired for years, the thing that stands out in my mind that Amanda does at a level I have not seen any one do, is that she will put a very challenging idea or request out to the room, she reads the response and then starts enunciating the objecting thoughts that are going through the minds of the audience. That is, she verbalises the audience mind chatter and you can watch the audience nodding their head and smiling, confirming that she has caught them out and the audience laughs at itself and then does exactly what she asks them to do. Absolutely remarkable!

Amanda Gore is truly, in my mind the Presenter's Presenter, a master at her craft and a very special and gifted human being who transforms people's lives for ever.

Her presentations last an hour, the effect lasts a life time.

- Allan Parker, Managing Director, Peak Performance Development Pty Ltd.

"Amanda is the consummate professional, uniquely equipped to capture an audience's attention, motivate change and lift their spirits. Having hired Amanda to open the National Convention of Australia's third largest real estate network, our members can't stop talking about her. They've adopted her turns of phrase, engaged in further discussion with each other using social media and are out there making a difference. What more could we hope for? Thank you Amanda. You lift our spirits and make our hearts sing!"

- Stewart Bunn

"Pure passion! Talk about an individual who gets her audience involved from the moment she arrives on stage! We have had her at our organizations convention two times now and people are still talking about her! This firecracker has unique ability to transfer passion to her audience and touches them at their core. She ignites enthusiasm within a group that you could cut with a knife. The message she delivers is not only thought provoking, it is action oriented and one that will be carried forward far into the future. Now that is IMPACT!"

- Stacy Stack, Director Of Training and Development, Express Employment Professionals

"Thanks Amanda for making our Hobart Conference such a fantastic success. Once again you demonstrated your fantastic ability to engage, excite and ignite the audience. Everyone came out of your session on an absolute high - and this didn't just apply to our staff members, but also their partners! The room was just abuzz with energy! The fantastic message you delivered in the "Amanda" style was just the perfect keynote address and finale to our conference. We're still getting feedback about your session - it certainly has left an indelible impression on all our delegates."

- Joanne Peters, Commonwealth Bank of Australia

"As a professional MC, I spend a lot of time sitting in conference rooms, observing professional speakers at work. Amanda Gore without doubt is one of the very best. She transforms the mood in a conference room in a way that others could only dream of doing. Even the toughest, stubbornest, most conservative, cynical or 'blokey' audience soon come on board and are swept away in her hysterical, tender, insightful, energetic and thought-provoking messages and activities. Amanda is simultaneously well-researched yet able to improvise and adapt to the crowd. She passionately cares about her subject matter and her enthusiasm is infectious. She also happens to be a lovely person, with no attitude, no prima-donna tendencies, is endearingly self-deprecating and most importantly - super experienced and highly professional at what she does. Guaranteed to leave your audience on a high, smiling, talking to each other.....perhaps even singing.....and certainly thinking. And she wears a mean pair of Bunny Ears."

- Andrew Klein, Director, Impact EnterTRainers

"I first heard Amanda speaking at a Conference in 1996 when I was at the Flight Centre and when I heard she was to be a speaker a couple of years later at a Financial Conference I just knew I had to be there!

More recently (2010) I heard Amanda talking to a group at the Knowledge Gym in Christchurch...and I knew again I was not going to miss it, come what may! And once again Amanda fulfilled my expectations. She had the crowd in her hands...she's full of fun and knowledge, has a wonderful way of putting across her message and breaks down people's barriers.

Be prepared to be on a buzz, smile all day and to remember for years to come. ZOOTS to you (you need to listen to Amanda speak to understand

- Lyn Bell, owner, Lyn Bell & Associates

"Amanda is one of the most generous people on the planet - her effervescence, energy, and enthusiasm she gives freely to those around her. Happiness is infectious and Amanda's commitment to sharing joy on is inspiring. How fortunate we are to have such a woman - to continually remind us that life is short and that our well being is the corner stone to happiness.

When this woman is in a room - people leave feeling amazing"

- Naomi Simson, CEO, RedBalloon

"Amanda has spoken at one of our major client functions as a key note speaker, and I have also been to other industry conferences where she has presented. Amanda is without doubt one of the best motivational speakers out there. She is very humorous and entertaining, and combines great structure and content, with memorable take home messages during her presentations. Our clients laughed very hard for the entire session, but also took a lot away from it personally, both from a workplace and relationship/life balance perspective. They are still talking about it. A person with great vitality, wit and knowledge, perfect for any type of conference or team building exercise, I highly recommend Amanda. ."

- Gerard Hines

"I first saw Amanda speak live at a Meeting Planners International conference. She wowed the audience so much that she received a thunderous, lengthy standing ovation. Her program alone uplifted the mood of the overall conference. She had the attendees smiling and singing in the hallways during breaks.

Basically, what Amanda does is educate people while they laugh - with great content on how to effectively deal with change and delivered in a way that makes a real lasting difference."

- Dr. Tony Alessandra, Alessandra & Associates, Inc.

"Amanda Gore is a breath of fresh air - the perfect storm of skill / experience and attitude. I have witnessed a number of Amanda's performances and marveled how quickly she had the audience literally in the palm of her hand.

As a human being Amanda is also the 'real deal' - audiences and groups get that quickly. All in all Ms Gore is one of the most consummate professionals I have ever known. If you are wondering will she make a difference - don't waste your time - she will - just work out what sort of difference you want her to make."

- Stephen James Joyce, Author of 'Teaching an Anthill to Fetch'

"I have had the distinct pleasure of hearing Amanda Gore present as the keynote speaker on two separate occasions in the United States. I would highly recommend that if you have the opportunity to run, not walk to hire her for your event - she is by far the most dynamic, energetic and high profile speaker I have ever heard. She is engaging with her audience, get's people involved "out of the box" and is absolutely superb at what she does. Again, I would highly recommend you take the time to contact Amanda and discuss her fit within your needs."

- Mike Udermann

"Amanda Gore is an amazing speaker and an even more amazing person. She brings humor, knowledge and Joy to every presentation. I first hired Amanda for a keynote presentation at the Creative Memories Annual Convention and the attendees loved her. They laughed, they cried and they spoke "Amandaisms" for months after her presentation. I was so pleased with the results that I had her back for a presentation at the CM Leadership Conference. I also had her speak to the Creative Memories Canadian Annual Meeting where she received a standing ovation. I arranged for Amanda to speak to the Direct Selling Association Annual Meeting on the same program as Dr. Phil. Amanda was the star of the Meeting. Her insights and delivery opened doors for her to speak to dozens of additional DSA companies.

I asked Amanda to speak at the Scentsy Annual Meeting in 2010 to over 6,000 attendees and as expected, she did not disappoint. She brings amazing insights into human nature and enables one to change themselves from within. It is with great joy that I recommend Amanda as an amazing speaker, trainer and entertainer. She is the best!"

- Ronnie D. Armes, President, Seeds of Synergy

"I had the pleasure of attending a conference session run by Amanda at the National Rewards Group Conference in 2010. Amanda led the final keynote of the conference and in the space of just a few short minutes had a group of (mostly) stuffy remuneration experts leaving their self consciousness at the door. Amanda has a great style that is based on solid research but is both engaging, funny, entertaining and extremely insightful. She is able to achieve rapid shifts in attitude in large groups through her unique style! It was certainly an enjoyable and memorable experience!"

"SOLGM hired Amanda Gore as keynote speaker at our Annual Conference -- not once, but twice. She delivered an engaging, effective and highly spirited presentation on leadership at our 2009 conference. What a presentation! At the end of the 1.5 hour presentation in the morning after the conference dinner -- she got the delegates up on their feet, hugging, smiling and sending zoot zoot to one another. During our briefing prior to conference, I told her that she may have a hard time engaging because of the profile of our audience. Boy was I wrong! We had to bring her back the following year to do a follow up on the presentation. And she did exactly the same in 2010, despite having an ear infection.

Amanda is an excellent speaker to work with. She is very professional and would go beyond her duties to help you when you have event crisis - impromptu activities, late speakers, etc. What I also like (which I don't normally see in other speakers) is that she actually attended most part of the conference which was valued by delegates and organisers."

-Janice Nadew, Marketing & Communications Advisor, SOLGM

"I met Amanda Gore in 1990 when I was in the Speaking Industry. I can't recommend Amanda highly enough. Her message (always so succinct and very close to her brief) always addresses the theme, her delivery is spectacular - so fresh and different, her content is always on trend and her presentations make the audience laugh. Amanda is always the perfect speaker. I have now been saying for 20 years that Amanda Gore is the best female speaker in Australia - and that fact hasn't changed. She only gets better and more vibrant as time passes."

-Catherine Crawford

Thanking you for jump shifting the attitude and the involvement of the delegates at our recent conference. Your incredible energy and captivating personality engaged every single participant to become a part of the program, something I have not witnessed in 25 years of management. Normally the doubting Thomases remain pessimistic throughout the presentation and become "energy sappers" to the rest....you eliminated these people at the onset and the tempo remained upbeat for the rest of the conference. Even at the service awards the slides were changed to the "ta dahs" and the recipients gave a mixture of big and little "excellent's" More importantly I can see that the Island Managers will go home and address their leadership style and reflect on their behaviours to ensure that they will be judged on their actions and how they act in front of their team.

You will be pleased to know in my final debrief session with the crew when I asked them what we should do at next year's conference the over whelming response was BRING BACK AMANDA!!!!!! So you had better keep your diary clear for the same time next year as we hold the conference in this week every year. -Ian Copeland, IBIS

"I have seen Amanda speak on a number of occasions and you can rely on her to raise the energy in the room and leave you inspired and re-purposed. I am a fan!"

Sharon Williams, Founder and CEO, Taurus Marketing

"There is an old saying in which I think perfectly describes Amanda for me:

"People forget what you SAY, people will often forget what you DO however people will never-ever forget the way in which you make them FEEL".

And after her unique and inspiring presentation, Amanda will make your audience FEEL great as she takes them out of their comfort zone in order for them to think about how they can be happier and more productive in life and business."

James Symond, Aussie Home Loans

"Amanda's strategies for dealing with stress are easy to follow and her concepts on communication are excellent - I would recommend Amanda to any organization wanting to improve their organizations motivational environment!"

Don Shay, President, Accrescent Consulting

"One word . . . AMAZING!

Two words . . . DAMN ENERGETIC!

I have just returned from Filex 2011, where Amanda opened the presentation with the most incredible presentation. And incredible on so many levels.

Her pitch was exactly right for the attendees. Her words, her mannerisms and her content was a perfect match. Building instant rapport and putting everyone at ease.

It was obvious she listened to the prior speakers and wove their message into her key note. A powerful skill but one in which attendees would not have been aware of. I am 100% sure they would have thought it was part of her presentation.

Her stage presence had everyone totally engaged.

The obvious depth of her knowledge in the subject matter, allowed you to sit and enjoy. It was both educating and entertaining - true edutainment.

If you need a speaker to spark the internal flame with your team, then you cannot go past Amanda Gore. She is no foofer!"

Justin Tamsett, Managing Director, Active Management

"Amanda provided a motivating, uplifting and unique presentation with a team of our high performers at an employee conference in February 2009. Since then our high achievers have 'zooted', 'hugged', 'built bridges' and continued to 'live out loud'. Her style of coaching helped highlight the importance of a positive attitude, sense of humor and self-belief in achieving personal and professional success. I would certainly work with Amanda again in the future."

Peter Clare CEO, Westpac New Zealand

"Amanda Gore is, quite simply, an outstanding presenter. I recently shared the stage with her at an 800+ conference and her combination of humor and quality content was brilliant. I'm still not sure if she's a health expert or a comedian but who cares...she's one of the best speakers I've ever seen and it was a thoroughly enjoyable experience watching and listening to her." Tim Sharp, Chief Happiness Officer, The Happiness Institute

"Amanda is a national treasure. She is the only speaker who has saturated the market in Australia, gone to the USA, saturated that market over a number of years and returned to Australia to do it all again. She does so well because she connects so well and she does that because she speaks into the listening language of the audience. She's engaging and delightful."

Colin Pearce, Director, Colin Pearce & Associates Pty Ltd

"Amanda Gore is AMAZING! She spoke at my recent Achieve Results in 2010 corporate professional development day in Sydney and she 'wowed' the room! Amanda is our Speaker of the Year in 2009 and when you book her, you'll see why! Amanda shows you how to live a joyous, healthy, functional life in the most unique, interactive and engaging manner. She's one of a kind! If you want to bring out the best in yourself and others then you must book Amanda Gore." December 3, 2009

"All I can say is that Amanda changed my life for the better. Through her newsletters, she has become my unpaid life coach. I've plagiarized (not really I give her credit) her insights for almost two years with my working team, my friends and my family. She has a ability to understand the spirit in the best of us (Sparky), and remind the worst in us (Wally) to get over ourselves and remember how good it feels to be good.

If your cooperation or group needs the affection and admiration of the human spirit recaptured in every employee. Then Amanda is your 30min-1hr delivery method."

Brian O'Neill, Marketing Specialist, National Enzyme Company

"It has been my good fortune to have been a participant at functions Amanda has spoken at, as well as hired her to speak to our audiences. In all cases I can pay the highest compliment a speaker can earn: she will literally change your life. Amanda has the ability to touch people at their deepest, innermost level, and flip that switch that can bring about core transformation. I recommend Amanda as highly as I can."

Brian Sullivan VP, Humana

"As soon as you mention Amanda's name people say great things! She is a fantastic addition to any conference event. Her audiences rave about her, she makes them laugh, engages them every time. Many years after she has spoken to an audience they can still recall her presentation and content. I highly recommend her for your next major event."

Neen James, Productivity Expert & Speaker, President and International Productivity Expert, Neen James Communications

"Everybody will get inspired by experiencing such a great, lively and charming speaker as Amanda Gore! I hired her for a national event in 2000 and saw her again in Las Vegas in 2007 and she was still unbelievably energetic and motivating, yet warm and sincere. One of the best speakers I have heard and worked with! Besides all that, she is a lovely person to hang out with. Value for money and an asset for life!"

Sandra Lopulalan COO, ERA Nederland NV

"I saw Amanda's presentation in Las Vegas at a HFMA conference and was enlightened and entertained like none else has. She has great energy, insight and a message for everyone. I would truly recommend her program for any audience or event!"

Mike Schaefer, Wells Fargo

"Amanda is a captivating, inspiring and entertaining speaker. She delivers the right balance of light hearted stories entwined with some heavy facts about neuroscience, positive psychology, epigenetics, and emotional intelligence. I left her talk a better stronger person, understanding what I need to activate in my own life.

I look forward to reading her books and hearing her energy charged presentation again."

Heather Smith, Speaker / Panelist / Facilitator / Educator / Emcee,

"If you want a speaker that makes your people feel good after the speech, there are hundreds of good speakers out there to choose from; go get one. But if you want your people to be feeling good and making positive changes for weeks and months and years after, then Amanda Gore is your simple choice. In fact, "speech" is hardly the word for what she accomplishes. She truly is someone who motivates your people to stop, think, analyze and change. She makes her life altering lessons easy to understand and terribly fun to execute. She leaves an incredibly uplifting impact on her audiences. Your people will truly thank you for bringing Amanda into their lives.

So, you want a speaker? Go get one. But if you want a real catalyst for lasting, positive change, Amanda Gore is your clear choice! Zoots!"

Jim McPhee CFE , Franchise Synergy

"Amanda was retained to conduct a half day workshop for all managers of the Asia Pacific business in line with our Regional conferences theme of "People with Passion". The agenda was to help increase self-awareness as a route to create happy and more engaged people.

Amanda has the amazing ability to connect with many people at the same time enabling them to embark on a journey of self-awareness and transformation. She is able to provide both the science and the spirituality behind "why we are who we are " and equip her audience with the tools to make change.

All this is done with a brilliantly engaging style that endears her to one and all. Truly inspirational speaker who is also a wonderful human being!"

Vijay Kashyap, Campari

"Amanda's presentation was sensational.

The workshop with our Hospital Management Team was joyful, thought provoking, considered, hilarious and energetic.

She connected us and empowered us to think with our heart and our head, to lead, learn and stand united-and above all to approach our work, home life and each other reverently and positively.

She provided us with strategies to change and modify behaviours and stories, how to maintain control in times of stress and to unify teams- not to mention how to build a bridge!

Through much laughter and story telling she had us learning, laughing, listening, singing and dancing - She taught us to wake up.... to what really matters!

Much gratitude and zooties to Amanda..... "

Jenny Kilby ,Holy Spirit Northside Private Hospital, Chermside.QLD

"We hired Amanda to help us support a client who was going through a major transformational change program, with the complex brief of offering some perspectives on leadership, a discussion of successful teaming, and giving the program teams some effective tools for managing the fear of change and stresses of implementing a major program.

Anyone who has seen video clips of Amanda on YouTube knows the energy, humor and deep subject matter expertise that she brings to her engagements. What you don't see is the time and effort she puts into understanding the audience, the key points that we wanted to communicate and the quick understanding of the company and program structure and culture.

Many speakers make the mistake of being entertaining at the expense of educating and providing content, or of being content rich but dull and unmemorable. Amanda delivers simple, practical techniques for improving team and organizational performance, managing our personal lives, health and relationships. More importantly she does this in a way that is entertaining and memorable.

I find myself using techniques I first heard about when I saw her present 7 years ago. More importantly the survey feedback on the event was overwhelmingly positive, with 75% of folks saying that they would make changes to their personal and work lives based on the session. I also received several personal thank you's from individuals who felt profoundly impacted. There was one 'foofer'.

If you truly want to change your culture and team dynamic, hire Amanda."

Ian Wright, CMO Deloitte

"We so enjoyed having Amanda Gore at our recent annual MTA Conference & Expo. Amanda easily built rapport with us and our delegates and set the positive tone for one of our 'best conferences ever' (according to delegate evaluations). She was able to connect with our group of around 300 and not only educated us in "what REALLY matters" but entertained us as well. I would not hesitate in recommending Amanda to anyone wanting the WOW factor at their event and hope to work with her again in the future."

Anna McGeorge , Tourism Industry NZ

"Amanda provides thought provoking content and important self-care strategies, delivered in a way that the audience finds hilarious. I have seen Amanda speak three times now, and have engaged her to speak twice - all three times she had the audience in fits of laughter, and even provoked some tears. Amanda is intent on tailoring the session to her audience and will speak with you several times in the lead up to her speaking engagement. The participants loved that Amanda made references to things that were relevant to their profession. The ramifications of Amanda's keynotes have been very visible to me, even months later participants are still referring to the self-care strategies Amanda introduced and are still celebrating small achievements with a "Ta-da!"

Stacey De Calmer, Health and Community Services Workforce Council Inc

"I hired Amanda a couple of times for the purpose of energizing a large and global audience of senior executives and CEOs. She is absolutely fantastic, full of energy, focused, and keeps the crowd fully engaged for the entire period.

Her sessions are typically filled with laughter, audience interaction, and a general feel good atmosphere. The crowd also leaves the session with a clear direction on what the need to do in order to improve their personal skill sets.

I highly recommend working with Amanda."

Loay Nazer Young Presidents Organization

"Amanda, Queensland based, is one of Crestcom's global faculty presenters. Her topics for the current Bullet_Proof® Manager program include "Motivating through positive communication" and "How to be a stress buster". Her sessions rate consistently highly in Australia, even higher outside the country in markets including India, China, Germany and the USA in particular. I have no hesitation in recommending Amanda. Positively! Jamie"

Jamie Lord, Chairman, Crestcom International

"Amanda is arguably the most respected professional speaker in Australia. This kind of recognition does not come without being truly exceptional at her craft. Enormously engaging, absolutely hilarious and exceptionally masterful in the management of the group, Amanda commands place at the very top of her industry for very good reason."

Darren Hill, Executive Director, Pragmatic Thinking

"Amanda Gore was by far one of the most popular guest speakers at The Coffee Club International Convention 2010.

Amanda blew us all away with her extremely entertaining, encouraging and motivating speech presented in a fashion that only Amanda Gore can do!

Still to this day our staff members are quoting her quirky sayings around the office and in turn mirroring the positiveness that was associated with her presentation.

Amanda has such a zest for life and is very passionate about her work which was reflected not only throughout her presentation but while she was hosting our prestigious awards evening.

She managed to capture everyones attention and filled the room with laughter as well as many other emotions. It was quite amazing to see all of our delegates arm in arm singing "Always look on the bright side of life" I don't know how she did it – but she did, if the opportunity to use Amanda Gore ever arises again I would have no hesitation in doing so.

The Coffee Club Franchising"

John Lazarou, Director, Coffee Club

"Amanda is a leading authority in Occupational Health and Wellness. She provides wonderful concepts in positive business communications and managing stress. I highly recommend Amanda's materials as it will benefit your organization as it has my clients. Thank you Amanda for your entertaining approach and easy to learn concepts."

Hanif Ladha, Director, Successful Leadership Inc/Crestcom International

"I had the pleasure of attending Amanda Gore's presentation at a leadership conference sponsored by Burger King Corp several years ago. Her presentation was so insightful regarding the dynamics between parents, their children, and how those behaviors show up in the workplace. Her presentation was so enjoyable, humorous and insightful that it was the most attended key note speaker event ever for Burger King Leadership. I would highly recommend her for any organization or group."

Carmen Ferme, Communications for Generations, Field Training Specialist, Burger King

"Amanda Gore is an amazing speaker. I know her work as speaker at Crestcom program "The Bullet Proof Manager" and I love her conferences, the skills that she teach and her humor and enthusiasm.

If you are interest in leadership and motivation you need to listen what Amanda Gore have to say."

Carlos Ramos, Vice-President, Crestcom Portugal

"Amanda Gore addressed our National Conference on the 13th of May 2011. The content presented "hit the mark" in terms of the messaging and support we wanted to extend to members. The feedback we got from members included:

- "The best presenter I've ever seen"
- "Has given me a new and exciting way to view the world"
- "Wonderful entertainment and an even better message"

Personally, I found Amanda's presentation style uniquely entertaining, comical and emotionally charged. Amanda's ability to impart depth understanding of human behaviour created a warm connectivity and sense of team among a diverse group of individuals.

"Amanda is a fabulous speaker who is well respected amongst her peers in the speaking industry. I would have confidence that Amanda would inspire, enlighten, and teach others. She has built a great business and achieved success in an industry who's top performers are predominantly male. I'd also add she's a wonderful person."

David Goldsmith, New York State NSA Founder and President for 4 Years, National Speakers Association

"Amanda was a motivational guest speaker at our National Administrative Operations Conference in our general session. Her sense of humor, props and topics of discussion had 500 people engaged from the start to finish. Till this day, 7 years later I use her props and inspiration to keep work fun and positive! A must see!"

Janet A. D'Amico, General Manager, Phoenix Convention Centre

"Having been Key Note Speaking, Training and Facilitating in many countries and for hundreds of Corporate Organisations around the world for more time than I am willing to expose in print, I have had the very good fortune to have worked with, watched, studied, model and even at times co-presented with some very remarkable presenters, communicators, entertainers and educators. Many of whom I stand in awe of and marvel at their gifts, their talent, their craft, their art and their indefinable magic. I am deeply grateful to them all.

Of all of those people their is one name, one remarkable human being who has been there from the start, who very early on provided me with a new reference point for what is possible and has continued through her devotion to her craft to show me and many others a new way and another level of presenting and relating to audiences for us all to follow and aspire to. She is Amanda Gore.

Amanda's capacity to continuously explore, refinement, challenge, create innovative ways to not only get the information out, across and to make it memorable in a way that people are still making references to her work and key messages years later, is truly unique and remarkable.

I know nobody, any where in the world who makes their presentation both exciting, energising, entertaining, emotionally captivating, universally relevant, deeply memorable and hilariously funny. Most of us mere mortals strive to get some of these features into our presentation. Amanda gets all of them in every presentation, every time! I know no one else who does that. She brings new meaning to the words "UNIQUELY TALENTED".

Amanda has this uncanny ability to take the hardest, most complex issues and present them in the simplest, easy to understand manner that makes it possible for every one to "get it".

Of the many things that I have observed and admired for years, the thing that stands out in my mind that Amanda does at a level I have not seen any one do, is that she will put a very challenging idea or request out to the room, she reads the response and then starts enunciating the objecting thoughts that are going through the minds of the audience. That is, she verbalises the audience mind chatter and you can watch the audience nodding their head and smiling, confirming that she has caught them out and the audience laughs at itself and then does exactly what she asks them to do. Absolutely remarkable!

Amanda Gore is truly, in my mind the Presenter's Presenter, a master at her craft and a very special and gifted human being who transforms people's lives forever.

Her presentations last an hour, the effect lasts a life time.

"I recently had Amanda Gore on my radio program " Radio Improv - Joy in the moment " www.planetaudio.org.nz/radioimprov

Amanda spoke of all the good we can do in the world and the many and varied ways we can access joy. To be in communication with another like mind and share the values of the virtues like gratitude and how they can powerfully work in our lives was wonderful.

She is a naturally good humored woman who has not lost the child like wonder and appreciation of her surroundings and the people in her life and this alone is very attractive to the universe! I was so pleased to be making the connection and to see another person living with the joy that is created from within.

Her projects are a reflection of her heartfelt space and the contribution she is making to the planet!

"Amanda is the consummate professional, uniquely equipped to capture an audience's attention, motivate change and lift their spirits. Having hired Amanda to open the National Convention of Australia's third largest real estate network, our members can't stop talking about her. They've adopted her turns of phrase, engaged in further discussion with each other using social media and are out there making a difference. What more could we hope for? Thank you Amanda. You lift our spirits and make our hearts sing!"

Stewart Bunn, National Communications Manager, First National

"Pure passion! Talk about an individual who gets her audience involved from the moment she arrives on stage! We have had her at our organizations convention two times now and people are still talking about her! This firecracker has unique ability to transfer passion to her audience and touches them at their core. She ignites enthusiasm within a group that you could cut with a knife. The message she delivers is not only thought provoking, it is action oriented and one that will be carried forward far into the future. Now that is IMPACT!"

Stacy Stack, Director Of Training and Development, Express Employment Professionals

"Thanks Amanda for making our Hobart Conference such a fantastic success. Once again you demonstrated your fantastic ability to engage, excite and ignite the audience. Everyone came out of your session on an absolute high - and this didn't just apply to our staff members, but also their partners! The room was just abuzz with energy! The fantastic message you delivered in the "Amanda" style was just the perfect keynote address and finale to our conference. We're still getting feedback about your session - it certainly has left an indelible impression on all our delegates."

Joanne Peters, Managing Sales Director, Commonwealth Bank

"As a professional MC, I spend a lot of time sitting in conference rooms, observing professional speakers at work. Amanda Gore without doubt is one of the very best. She transforms the mood in a conference room in a way that others could only dream of doing. Even the toughest, stubbornest, most conservative, cynical or 'blokey' audience soon come on board and are swept away in her hysterical, tender, insightful, energetic and thought-provoking messages and activities. Amanda is simultaneously well-researched yet able to improvise and adapt to the crowd. She passionately cares about her subject matter and her enthusiasm is infectious. She also happens to be a lovely person, with no attitude, no prima-donna tendencies, is endearingly self-deprecating and most importantly - super experienced and highly professional at what she does. Guaranteed to leave your audience on a high, smiling, talking to each other.....perhaps even singing.....and certainly thinking. And she wears a mean pair of Bunny Ears."

Andrew Klein, Director, Impact EnterTRainers

"From the beginning Amanda had everyone in the room engaged and involved in an energetic and fun presentation. Within moments interaction between everyone was occurring setting the scene for an amazing convention.

Amanda's presentation Dynamic, Fun and extremely Valuable."

Ruben Rocha, Owner, Rubens

"I first heard Amanda speaking at a Conference in 1996 when I was at the Flight Centre and when I heard she was to be a speaker a couple of years later at a Financial Conference I just knew I had to be there!

More recently (2010) I heard Amanda talking to a group at the Knowledge Gym in Christchurch...and I knew again I was not going to miss it, come what may! And once again Amanda fulfilled my expectations. She had the crowd in her hands...she's full of fun and knowledge, has a wonderful way of putting across her message and breaks down people's barriers.

Be prepared to be on a buzz, smile all day and to remember for years to come. ZOOTS to you (you need to listen to Amanda speak to understand)."

Lyn Bell, AFA, CFP at Lyn Bell & Associates

"Amanda is one of the most generous people on the planet - her effervescence, energy, and enthusiasm she gives freely to those around her. Happiness is infectious and Amanda's commitment to sharing joy on is inspiring. How fortunate we are to have such a woman - to continually remind us that life is short and that our well being is the corner stone to happiness.

When this woman is in a room - people leave feeling amazing"

Naomi Simson, CEO, RedBalloon

"Be prepared to move out of your comfort zone, have fun, and most importantly leave Amanda's session motivated to truly connect with family, friends, and colleagues. The audience will be actively involved, even the ones that thought they wouldn't be, and in our case the hour Amanda was with the group seemed to fly by in mere minutes!"

Chris Beard, Director Strategic & Key Account Management, Boehringer Ingelheim

"I first met Amanda well attending a function for top producing GM Automotive Dealers. I was so impressed I had her come to our annual staff retreat the next year. In front of our over 250 strong team members she discussed everything from brains to bowels and all parts in between. We even learned a little construction along the way by understanding how to build bridges to get over it! I would whole heartedly recommend anyone looking to get there team motivated, reinvigorated or just loosened up from the daily frustrations to enlist Amanda at you next function."

Gordon Scott, Scott Subaru

"Amanda is one of the key speaker of the executive training program from Crestcom - The Bullet Proof Manager. Her innovative ideas, and her wonderfully experiential techniques to involve the audience, give participants practical ideas to apply in everyday life, and the needed motivation to apply this same ideas right after leaving the session."

Ricardo Patrocínio, Crestcom

"Amanda has spoken at one of our major client functions as a key note speaker, and I have also been to other industry conferences where she has presented. Amanda is without doubt one of the best motivational speakers out there. She is very humorous and entertaining, and combines great structure and content, with memorable take home messages during her presentations. Our clients laughed very hard for the entire session, but also took a lot away from it personally, both from a workplace and relationship/life balance perspective. They are still talking about it. A person with great vitality, wit and knowledge, perfect for any type of conference or team building exercise, I highly recommend Amanda. ."

Gerard Hines, Managing Director, Delta Agri Business

"I first saw Amanda speak live at a Meeting Planners International conference. She wowed the audience so much that she received a thunderous, lengthy standing ovation. Her program alone uplifted the mood of the overall conference. She had the attendees smiling and singing in the hallways during breaks.

Basically, what Amanda does is educate people while they laugh - with great content on how to effectively deal with change and delivered in a way that makes a real lasting difference."

Dr. Tony Alessandra, Professional Keynote Speaker, Alessandra & Associates, Inc.

"Amanda Gore is a breath of fresh air - the perfect storm of skill / experience and attitude. I have witnessed a number of Amanda's performances and marveled how quickly she had the audience literally in the palm of her hand.

As a human being Amanda is also the 'real deal' - audiences and groups get that quickly. All in all Ms Gore is one of the most consummate professionals I have ever known. If you are wondering will she make a difference - don't waste your time - she will - just work out what sort of difference you want her to make."

Stephen Joyce, Author of 'Teaching an Anthill to Fetch', Stephen James Joyce

"I have had the distinct pleasure of hearing Amanda Gore present as the keynote speaker on two separate occasions here in the United States. I would highly recommend that if you have the opportunity to run, not walk to hire her for your event - she is by far the most dynamic, energetic and high profile speaker I have ever heard. She is engaging with her audience, get's people involved "out of the box" and is absolutely superb at what she does. Again, I would highly recommend you take the time to contact Amanda and discuss her fit within your needs."

Mike Udermann Vice President, Fortune Transportation

"Amanda Gore is an amazing speaker and an even more amazing person. She brings humor, knowledge and Joy to every presentation. I first hired Amanda for a keynote presentation at the Creative Memories Annual Convention and the attendees loved her. They laughed, they cried and they spoke "Amandaisms" for months after her presentation. I was so pleased with the results that I had her back for a presentation at the CM Leadership Conference. I also had her speak to the Creative Memories Canadian Annual Meeting where she received a standing ovation. I arranged for Amanda to speak to the Direct Selling Association Annual Meeting on the same program as Dr. Phil. Amanda was the star of the Meeting. Her insights and delivery opened doors for her to speak to dozens of additional DSA companies.

I asked Amanda to speak at the Scentsy Annual Meeting in 2010 to over 6,000 attendees and as expected, she did not disappoint. She brings amazing insights into human nature and enables one to change themselves from within. It is with great joy that I recommend Amanda as an amazing speaker, trainer and entertainer. She is the best! "

Ronnie D. Armes, President, Seeds of Synergy

"I had the pleasure of attending a conference session run by Amanda at the National Rewards Group Conference in 2010. Amanda led the final keynote of the conference and in the space of just a few short minutes had a group of (mostly) stuffy remuneration experts leaving their self consciousness at the door. Amanda has a great style that is based on solid research but is both engaging, funny, entertaining and extremely insightful. She is able to achieve rapid shifts in attitude in large groups through her unique style! It was certainly an enjoyable and memorable experience!"

Richard Fryer, National Rewards Group

"SOLGM hired Amanda Gore as keynote speaker at our Annual Conference -- not once, but twice. She delivered an engaging, effective and highly spirited presentation on leadership at our 2009 conference. What a presentation! At the end of the 1.5 hour presentation in the morning after the conference dinner -- she got the delegates up on their feet, hugging, smiling and sending zoot zoot to one another. During our briefing prior to conference, I told her that she may have a hard time engaging because of the profile of our audience. Boy was I wrong! We had to bring her back the following year to do a follow up on the presentation. And she did exactly the same in 2010, despite having an ear infection.

Amanda is an excellent speaker to work with. She is very professional and would go beyond her duties to help you when you have event crisis -- impromptu activities, late speakers, etc. What I also like (which I dont normally see in other speakers) is that

Janice Nadew, New Zealand Society of Local Government Managers

"I met Amanda Gore in 1990 when I was in the Speaking Industry. I can't recommend Amanda highly enough. Her message (always so succinct and very close to her brief) always addresses the theme, her delivery is spectacular - so fresh and different, her content is always on trend and her presentations make the audience laugh. Amanda is always the perfect speaker. I have now been saying for 20 years that Amanda Gore is the best female speaker in Australia - and that fact hasn't changed. She only gets better and more vibrant as time passes."

Catherine Crawford, Vice President, State Street Global Advisors

"Amanda is one of the top speakers in the world - and the reason for that is that she connects with people's deep emotions. If you ever have the opportunity to hire Amanda, she will be the highlight of your conference or meeting. Amanda has also taught me how to be a much better speaker myself with her generous coaching."

Craig Rispin | Futurist & Innovation Expert, Keynote Speaker, Author & Mentor - Expert on Future Trends & Innovation, The Future Trends Group

"Amanda was a catalyst to launch our RAC Leadership Development Workshop event to new heights. I was so excited to hear that she was the Keynote for the LDW that year where I helped lead the event, and she nailed it. Having seen her in 2001 for the first time, she continues to spark the energy for an event and help to flourish. Good On Ya Amanda!"

Mark Shinn, MAS, 2008 President, Regional Association Council (RAC)

"Amanda's presentation this year at Filex was nothing short of brilliant. She connected with the audience immediately & presented her material in such an entertaining & enjoyable manner that people were talking about it for the remainder of the conference. It was an absolute delight to be in the audience & I hope I have the good fortune of hearing Amanda speak again soon!"

Jen Brown, Personal Trainer & Movement Specialist, SPARTA Personal Training

"The presentation Amanda provided was inspirational and informative - that fact that Amanda was able to create a feeling of small seminar out of an amphitheatre of over 2500 people was incredible. The energy in the room was electric - I will be looking for Amanda at my next opportunity!"

Lee Shields, YMCA

"Amanda is an electrifying presenter and spirit ignitor!! I had the absolute pleasure of participating in the Keynote session at the 2011 HRPA Conference in Toronto where Amanda inspired a group of over 1000 Human Resource Professionals to move forward in a positive fashion. She engaged and captured the attention of her audience by sharing her approach to fulfill the needs of people in your business, therefore dispelling their fears and influence the desired behaviours that you seeking. Truly a delightful, entertaining and joyful presenter!"

Sandy McCann CHRP, Co-Chair of Student/New Grad Peer Networking Group, GVHRPA

"I was fortunate to see Amanda present at an HR Conference in Toronto (Feb 2011) and also to witness the collective response of a few thousand in the room who were clearly as moved as I. She gives you truth wrapped in humor and her message reaches the whole audience while also giving that "something" extra which makes the message just for you."

David Breau, MBA CHRP Human Resource Manager, Loyalty One

"Amanda is an inspirational Speaker and creates an urgency for listeners to want to jump up and make changes in their life even before leaving the presentation! Any organisation wishing to energize their people should engage Amanda Gore to address Leaders, Managers and Staff. I assure you, your people will be highly motivated to do better!"

Sigrid de Kaste, Stickybeak Marketing

"I was lucky enough to be at an industry conference recently where Amanda was presenting. Wow what a great session!"

With a delivery and timing any stand up would envy her thought-provoking message was always engaging. The crowd hung on her every word and heartily followed her lead through a series of hilarious interactions with the person beside them.

Her infectious and vibrant style left a truly joyful, poignant and lasting impression on all there. I'd run, not just walk, to see her again."

Tony Anthony , WHSMS – Mine Safety, NSW Government

"I've "hired" Amanda twice from the perspective of listening to her presentations to an organisation that I belong to. Not only is she an insightful, inspiring and energetic creative speaker, she is without doubt the most enjoyable presenter that I have ever heard. Why? Because although she is funny and wickedly intelligent - she's also right. And when you've listened to Amanda, and go back to your own office and try to put her words into practice - you get results. This may be a small example, but she has enabled me to completely turn my team meetings around. In fact I wasn't even having team meetings but they seemed like such a waste of time. Now I follow some of Amanda's advice, and our meetings are now regular (! who would have thought!), effective and fun. But most of all - taking her advice has made me a better manager, and my team a better team.

What more could you ask for from a presenter? I could listen to her all day, and I would really value a one on one conversation because she has made me a better person and a better manager, helping my staff to also improve. She's a motivational rock star who really knows what she's doing, and encourages ongoing development, which she also practices in her own life.

I feel privileged to have been able to hear her twice."

Andrea Curtis, Upper Hutt City Council

"Amanda captured our audience with her wit, her insightful concepts and her ability to engage and connect on so many levels. It was great to have a speaker who could meet our needs in such a unique and entertaining way. I would recommend Amanda highly."

Louise Taylor, Louise Taylor Consulting

"Where do you start to talk about Amanda - you can start at the beginning or at the end or somewhere in between? No matter what you decide, the experience is exciting, inviting, inspiring, interesting and different than anything else you would have done before. If you want your people to think anything but seriously about change and culture, in a way that will deliver results, you have found your inspiration with Amanda."

Louise Perram-Fisk FAIM FAHRI FCILT, Director, Department of Transport and Main Roads

"I invited Amanda Gore to speak at the recent sphinx Ascend development day in Brisbane and my advice to you is to do the same! I first experienced Amanda as an audience participant in the USA where she's been working for the last decade or so. When I found out she was back in Australia, I just had to secure her to speak at my event. She is insightful, engaging, warm, energetic and inspirational speaker who had everyone on their feet and participating right to the end of her presentation. Her content is very relevant to the senior businesswomen in my network and I received countless positive feedback about her presentation. If you're contemplating engaging Amanda for your event - stop thinking and just do it. She's the best investment you'll make energising and motivating your team." September 14, 2010

Jennifer Dalitz, Sphinx

"Amanda is one of the best speakers I have ever experienced! She shines and gets the audience in a magical state. She performs with humor and wisdom and I can't wait to hear her again. Whenever I think of her I smile and sing "Always look on the bright side of life""

Carolin Dahlman, The Love Coach, Coaching2love.com,

"Amanda was a great speaker and fit for our franchise clients. Her burst of energy and natural enthusiasm is infectious and naturally brings people to engage and step outside their comfort zone.

Amanda is flexible, adaptable and authentic. I look forward to working with her again!"

Ruth Hirst, Program & Events Director - Synergy Events

It has been my pleasure to invite Amanda Gore with her message of Joy to speak at several business sales meetings over the past decade plus and I'll invite her again when the situation is right.

Her message is entertaining, high energy, engaging, motivational, thought provoking, and behavior changing. Her powerful message is delivered with humor but sprinkled with science.

Her presentation will be a highlight of any meeting. People will be talking about her message for days.

The first time I heard her I learned how to "build a bridge and get over it". It works"

Jim Gelder, CLU, CEO at Highland Capital Brokerage

"Amanda provided our business community to remember why they were in business. She delivered an excellent workshop that was 100% on brief with terrific results. All participants not only wanted her to return but also wanted to ensure more staff could attend."

Jason Harm, "Manager Regional Development at Lockyer Valley Regional Council

"Amanda Gore can be summed up in one word Amazing! As a keynote speaker she has the power to move participants from laughter to tears and back again. Her ability to tell a story and engage an audience is incredible.... I first saw Amanda speak over 20 years ago - her message is timeless and delivered through a prism of the here and now.

We recently invited Amanda to be apart of our live event series - Balance by Deborah Hutton - Reconnect and from the feedback we received her keynote was for many of our participants live changing.

We look forward to having Amanda at our events again and again".

Sonya Keenan, Digital Strategy, Implementation, Insights, Content Creation, Community Building, Learnification

"You killed it with us at our Sales Kick Off! You were absolutely right going first up and setting the scene. You managed to hit all the points we wanted brought out that were relevant to Veda and you did it in a really memorable way. Your delivery and energy is tremendous. That's exactly what we wanted to have our people walk away with - great concept, tools to execute and a terminology that we can use to remind people how to keep the momentum going. Super job...more please!"

Tim Courtright, Executive General Manager Sales at Veda

"We had Amanda speak at our Conference and she was AMAZING. She had hundreds of people interacting and standing up smiling and engaged in her talk (which was tailored to our business).

Her motivation was contagious and everyone left feeling energized and happy. Would highly recommend having her as a keynote speaker at any event!"

Kevin Young, Director, Experienced Property Investor, Club Founder, Owner of the Property Club (incorporating The Investors Club)

"Amanda took the time to understand our business and tailored her presentation to suit. Our audience left extremely motivated and on a high!"

Erin Peters, Events Officer at Uniting Care Health

"Amanda recently spoke at our National sales conference to around 20 of the sales team. After just a few short discussions Amanda was quick to get a great picture of our business and team and what we were looking for from her. Amanda got our conference off to a great start which carried through for the full three days and most importantly she left the team with some tools and thoughts for them to take away. The group thoroughly enjoyed Amanda's session"

Gary Nulty, Managing Director, Garlock Ltd

"I haven't met Amanda in person (yet) but I was lucky enough to be invited to a "virtual" event that Amanda spoke at. I vividly recall the energy in the room, although hundreds of miles away, you could feel the excitement. Amanda had the room riveted as she explained Foofers and FARC! I still joke with my "joy buddy" many years later, and many of her terms inject themselves..."

Wendy Sanche, Environmental, Health and Safety Manager at Combined Metal

Industries Inc

"At the end of a year when most of us were feeling tired and in need of a break, Amanda's presentation was inspiring and re-energising. Amanda gave us some really important and valuable messages on how, as leaders and managers, to bring out the best in ourselves and our team. Importantly, Amanda showed us how to do this and have fun at the same time, giving us factual, research based information on why we do things and how we can change this. Amanda is so good for the spirit, bringing laughter and joy into the education process as well. Great presentation."

Angela Gaiero, Human Resources Consultant at University of the Sunshine Coast

"Amanda was brilliant. She successfully presented to 3 Regions being Australia where she was physically and America and the UK and involved all regions enabling interaction and involvement using Virtual Conferencing technology.

She injected motivation and enthusiasm into the groups and her techniques and suggestions have lived long within the group."

Angela Glynn, Executive Assistant to CIO at Lend Lease

"Our marriage celebrant association, Australian Marriage Celebrants Incorporated, engaged this delightful, absolutely amazingly inspirational and motivational speaker, Amanda Gore, for our July 2014 conference.

Amanda was, without doubt, the highlight of our conference, and the best decision we could have made. Simply put - outstanding!

Amanda had our 250 participants captivated from the moment she walked on stage. The rave reviews are still coming in. Not only is Amanda motivational, but her presentation is also genuinely life changing for so many people - we were touched by her warmth and passion for positivity.

It really is difficult to put into words what an amazing effect this lady can have on those fortunate enough to be in her audience! We were spellbound, enchanted, moved beyond words, and every single delegate left on the highest of highs.

Thank you Amanda for being you. A unique, no-nonsense, "get a life" presenter - you rocked our conference and we will be forever grateful!"

Ann Dally, Marriage Celebrant at Events Etcetera

"Amanda was the Keynote Speaker at the Conference in Denver for Financial Service Sales Professionals. She thoroughly engaged the audience, and spoke of joy, gratitude, and happiness. All 130 attendees had great things to say about her, her message, and her method for "engaging" the audience in the presentation. I would highly recommend her as a Keynote Speaker."

Alan Pratt, Founder and Owner, Pratt Legacy Advisors, Inc.

"Amanda - Thank you SO much for giving such an fabulous presentation to our Society of Incentive Travel Executives Southern California Chapter yesterday. Everyone loved you! Your words of inspiration were a huge example in how to package profound messages with humor and to be more appreciative of each other. After your talk, several attendees came up to me and said that was our best speaker presentation EVER! A couple of other colleagues who attended the event said it was so much more inspiring and enlightening than just hearing facts and figures from a speaker. At our SITE SoCal Board meeting later yesterday, we were all showing appreciation and saying "Ta-Da!" to each other! Thanks again for helping us laugh, learn, love, celebrate and for "lighting the pilot light in our hearts"! You're the best! Warmest regards, Rita"

Rita Connor, Owner, Elite Resorts & Spas

Amanda presented at a conference recently and from the moment she stepped on stage, you could feel the room burst into energy. Positivity was the word and Amanda had everyone entertained and engaged right until the end. Amanda even had them (over 500 pax) singing and hugging as they left the room - amazing to see! The momentum of her presentation has changed perceptions here in the office (for the better) and we are continuing to benefit from her presentation. 100% recommend!"

Kiri Middleton, Event Director at cievents

"Synchron was honoured to have Amanda Gore open its national conference in Hong Kong and she did so with such skill and energy that she set a standard for all subsequent speakers to follow. Amanda's engagement with our delegates was first class and the message she had resonated and was repeated throughout the entire conference.

It is easy to see why Amanda is regarded by many (me included) as Australia's premier international speaker".

Don Trapnell, CEO Synchron
