

Stewart Kennedy has changed the way thousands of people across the nation think about leadership. As a professional entrepreneur, humorous speaker and leadership trainer, Stewart has inspired and motivated for 26 years, to 350,000 audience members in 37 states, Budapest, Hungary and Canada.

Stewart grew up on a ranch in Oklahoma where he learned about hard work and hard knocks. He has been involved in multiple start up companies in a variety of industries from the food industry to construction to tax credit finance. These experiences have added a multitude of profound and powerful lessons that few presenters have the opportunity to share.

Stewart has started businesses from the ground up. He is the owner of Pristine Development, NGV Fleet Partners and Dry Surface Technology. His extensive background in start ups lends a unique voice to business professionals looking to start a venture or reinvent their company. He has been involved in new product development, financing, real estate development, construction and alternative fuels.

Stewart's true passion and love are his wife Casey and their three children, Emily, Peyton and Chance. They are active volunteer's in the local FFA chapter and both teach 11th grade Sunday School at Edmond's First Baptist Church.

Stewart's audiences include industry conventions, agriculture organizations, customer/employee appreciation events, students, educators and business professionals. Stewart brings humor, hard hitting business truth, interaction and fresh content to the table. The combination of high-energy and high-connection makes Stewart Kennedy the perfect choice for your next event.
