Dear Colleagues,

I recently held a Senior Leadership Off-site in Washington, DC for more than 140 senior managers from across the country. Each year we hold this off-site to celebrate success, network with one another, generate enthusiasm and strategize for the coming year. For the past 5 years we have tried a variety of speakers, events and activities to inspire and motivate folks. None worked as well nor as effectively nor were as powerful as having Tom Flick speak to us.

I admit to being somewhat skeptical – trying yet another speaker at yet another leadership event. I could not have been more surprised. Tom was inspirational and motivational – telling his own stories mixed with industry best practices combined with personal stories from people in business, athletics and across the world to paint a picture for the audience of what it means to "do the right thing" both in business and in our personal lives. The time Tom spoke flew by – it was filled with laughter, tears, soul searching and enlightenment. All of the feedback I have received has been immensely positive and countless folks told me "Tom was the best speaker we've ever heard".

I highly recommend Tom as a speaker – he is both a genuine individual and a fantastic speaker!

Sincerely,

Karen M. Dahut
