

Ann Mincey Speaker Intro

Our speaker is nationally recognized as a leader in the beauty industry, contributing to the worldwide expansion of the Redken brand, Ann is celebrating her 32nd anniversary with REDKEN 5th Avenue NYC this year. Ann brings a wealth of industry experience from her position as Vice President of Global Communications. Her contributions to high performance with the REDKEN senior management team have resulted in double-digit growth for eight consecutive years and earned her the “Priestess of Profit” title.

Working in an increasingly competitive world that caters to exterior beauty and media-driven image, Ann Mincey set her own path and led other professional men and women to focus instead on their inner beauty. The message that Ann so passionately shares with her audiences is: Get Glowing! You are a Star Right Where You Are. She creates an emotional connection with her listeners, while sharing her personal insights and professional knowledge on how each of us can attain balance and success in our lives. Ann believes, “Get Glowing is not just a presentation I do, it’s a life I live, a life of harmonious wealth in the five major areas; physically, mentally, emotionally, financially and spiritually.”

Ann is also a certified HeartMath <sup>TM</sup> trainer, achieving the professional level of expertise to expand two of her essential programs: Glow Points: give your body what it needs to be fortified; and give your mind what it needs to be focused. Ann has developed and delivered inspiring messages of confidence, brand image and communication skills for clients and salon professionals in Canada, South Africa, Asia – including Japan, Taiwan and Korea – Chile, Venezuela and Mexico, Australia, New Zealand and throughout Europe including the United Kingdom, Holland, Belgium, Germany, France and Greece.
