

Sergey and Sasha

Extreme Father and Daughter Acrobatic and Balancing Duo

Sergey and Sasha

America's Got Talent / Extreme Acrobatic and Balancing Duo

Sergey and Sasha are a father and daughter duo who love the thrill and excitement of acrobatics and balancing. He is originally from Kazakhstan; Sasha was born in Moscow. The two now live with Sasha's mother, Lyudmila, in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Now sixteen, Sasha started performing when she was five years old. Sergey began building a hand-to-hand balancing act with her in 2008, when Sasha was six. After ten years of working together, the duo now perform an extreme hand-balancing act that will leave you on the edge of your seat!

In that time, Sergey and Sasha have achieved an impressive list of accomplishments. They were featured in 2009 and 2010 on Poland's Got Talent. That same year (2010) they won the Grand Prix (trapeze duo) and the Gold Crown (hand-to-hand act) in the International Festival of Circus Arts in Warsaw.

In 2013, Lyudmila, Sasha, and Sergey were invited to appear for the first time in the United States. They were featured in Neil Goldberg's Cirque Dreams, with whom they went on to tour extensively in North America. Since then, Sergey and Sasha have performed at the Ringling Theatre's Circus Spectacular in Sarasota, Florida, have been featured in Circus Circus in Reno, Nevada, the Beau Rivage Resort & Casino in Biloxi, Mississippi, at Busch Gardens in Tampa, Florida and in many NBA half-time performances with their hand-to-hand acrobatic act. In 2016, they were invited to participate in the International Youth Festival of Circus Arts at Circus Nikulin in Moscow.

In 2018, Sergey and Sasha competed in Season 13 of America's Got Talent. They quickly became fan favorites, beloved by all of America.

They are currently touring throughout the US in the critically acclaimed Cirque Dreams Holiday show, featuring world-class artists performing amazing feats of strength, balance, danger and flexibility.
