

ALLOW ME TO INTRODUCE MYSELF

WHO IS DAWN BENJAMIN OF SISTAH ENCOURAGE ME

Hey Sistahs! I'm here to tell you that life's one grand adventure, and it's about time you embarked on your own transformational journey. Take a cue from my story as a single mom, just like many of you, with a 25-year-old son who's a constant reminder that the only way to truly live is to dream big and embrace the scariness that comes with it. He's my gift from the universe, my daily dose of inspiration, and proof that bold dreams are worth chasing.

In my family, we live and breathe by a mantra passed down from my incredible mom: "Never Say Can't, Always Say Can." These words aren't just catchy; they're life changing. They've been our guiding light through life's twists and turns, pushing us to reach for the stars and transform challenges into triumphs. Let me share a little something about myself.

Now, while I absolutely adore seafood, especially shrimp, I've recently decided to trim back a bit. But hey, fried fish still gets a standing ovation from me – it's simply irresistible!

Travel is my ultimate passion, and in the next two years, I'm manifesting owning a townhome in one of the enchanting islands, whether it's the sun-kissed Virgin Islands, the vibrant Bahamas, or the serene St. Kitts. My wanderlust also calls me back to the heart of Africa, with Ghana, Kenya, and South Africa on my must-visit list. And let's not forget my wellness retreat in Bali and my mission to explore every gem of the Caribbean. Plus, there's Greece, Switzerland, Italy, and so much more awaiting my future adventures!

But here's the real secret: I'm a lover of life, and I live it to the fullest! I belt out tunes in a gospel choir and even direct it. My musical tastes? Eclectic, darling, ranging from soulful R&B and rap to the timeless oldies of Marvin Gaye and the Temptations. When I'm not singing, you can find me doing my morning workout, listening to Jazz or Zen music, watching the tennis matches, or strolling along the sandy shores. I'm also an avid football enthusiast (go, Pittsburgh Steelers!), and I never miss the action of the NBA games or the excitement of women's volleyball. And of course, dancing is my heart's truest expression of joy!

And here's where you come in – I'm your Chief Fulfillment Officer (CFO), ready to guide and inspire you to make transformative changes in your life. It's time to break free from the cycle of self-doubt, living in fear and embrace your most extraordinary self. Let's chase those dreams, challenge those boundaries, meet your mountains, and embark on a journey of profound transformation. I'm here, and I can't wait to share this incredible ride with you.

sistahencourageme@gmail.com

