ABOUT ME

Angela Gennari is the Founder & CEO of Titan Global Enterprises Inc., a multi-million-dollar security, event staffing, and risk management firm she built from just $1,000 as a single mom in a male-dominated industry. Under her leadership, TITAN has been named to the Inc. 5000 and repeatedly ranked among Atlanta's fastest-growing companies. Angela is also the founder of Xquity LLC, which provides funding and education for women-owned businesses, and the host of the Pretty Powerful Podcast, where she amplifies the stories of high-impact entrepreneurs and leaders. A certified security trainer with more than 20 years in events and operations, Angela is a sought-after voice on event safety, leadership, women in business, and building companies that lead with both hospitality and high performance.
