Introduction

Dr. Valentina is a dentist, keynote speaker, and entrepreneur behind two thriving dental practices and a seven-figure business. Named one of Arizona’s Top Dentists for two consecutive years, she brings the same precision and resilience she’s mastered in her career to every stage she steps on.

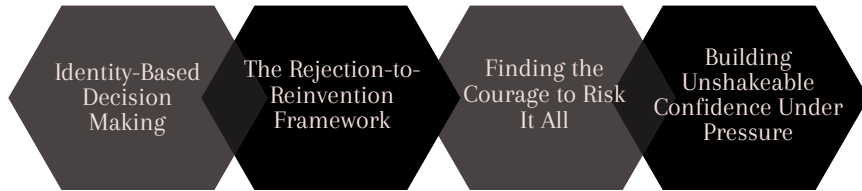

Originally from Caracas, Venezuela, she delivers her keynotes in both English and Spanish — making her a powerful voice for diverse audiences across the globe. Her talks are bold, personal, and deeply practical, guiding audiences through her own framework for making decisions rooted in self-awareness — so they stop letting the external world define who they are and start leading from within.

The Mission

Dr. Valentina's mission is to reframe the way audiences experience rejection — turning what feels like an ending into a catalyst for reinvention. She helps people rediscover who they are and make decisions from a place of clarity and confidence rather than fear or self-doubt.
