HOW YOU SHOW UP UNDER PRESSURE CHANGES EVERYTHING. PINEDA CREATES EXPERIENCES THAT HELP LEADERS STEP OUT OF AUTOPILOT, DEFINE THEIR PURPOSE, AND LEAD WITH CLARITY, INTENTION, AND IMPACT.

Chris Pineda, PhD is an organizational psychologist, keynote speaker, and author of Beneath the Transaction. He is also the creator of the 7 Conditions of Transformation™, a framework built to help leaders and teams create meaningful, lasting change.

Chris helps leaders reconnect to the purpose behind their work so they can lead with clarity, intention, and impact.

Over the years, Chris has coached and developed leaders and teams across nonprofit, education, government, business, and healthcare settings. Through that work, he's seen the same challenge show up again and again: people doing everything right on the outside while feeling disconnected underneath.

His work blends modern psychology with Filipino Indigenous wisdom and real-world leadership experience. He doesn't just talk about leadership. He creates experiences that help people slow down, reflect, and reconnect to what actually drives transformation.

In his keynote, Marked by Purpose, audiences don't just hear a message. They define their purpose, capture it in a simple and tangible way, and walk away with something they can carry into how they lead every day.

MORE THAN A KEYNOTE

A TRANSFORMATIONAL
EXPERIENCE THAT LEAVES A
MARK ON YOU, YOUR ORGANIZATION AND YOUR COMMUNITY.

KEYNOTE INTRODUCTION:

This transformational keynote was born from a near impossible challenge: to ignite lasting transformation in his community with the promise of unlimited resources.

For three years, nearly every effort fell short. Change seemed out of reach—until Chris turned to the wisdom of his indigenous heritage.

From that breakthrough came the 7 Conditions of Transformation—a framework that moves leaders and organizations beyond transactional culture into true transformation. At its foundation lies

PURPOSE.

Through story, ritual, and reflection, Chris invites participants to uncover their deeper WHY, mark themselves with a symbol, and memorialize it with a professional portrait—a lasting reminder of their commitment.

Audiences leave not just inspired, but marked by purpose—equipped with clarity and ready to spark transformation in their organizations and communities.

MARKED BY PURPOSE

Beneath the Transaction challenges the way we think about leadership, culture, and change.

Instead of surface-level strategies, it introduces the 7 Conditions of Transformation™—a practical framework for creating lasting change in individuals, teams, and organizations.

Grounded in real-world leadership experience and research, the book shows how purpose becomes the foundation for alignment, trust, and performance. It's a call for leaders to move beyond going through the motions—and to choose to

The Marked by Purpose

PORTRAIT EXPERIENCE

WHERE PURPOSE BECOMES PERMANENT

At the close of Chris Pineda's Marked by Purpose keynote, participants are invited to make their purpose visible. After reflecting deeply and creating a personal symbol that represents their purpose, they draw that symbol on their arm — a mark of commitment inspired by Chris's Filipino heritage.

Each participant is then photographed — not as an audience member, but as someone marked by purpose. These portraits capture a decision to live with clarity, courage, and intention.

Participants receive two professional portraits as a lasting reminder of their commitment, and event organizers may receive a short highlight reel that captures the spirit of transformation shared in the room.
