

Ken Miller, CFRE is a dynamic trainer, speaker, author and consultant. As the president of Denali FSP Fundraising & Grant Consultants, he leads transformative fundraising strategies, empowering nonprofits across sectors. Ken's workshops, like "Making the Ask with Confidence" and "Digital/Online & Social Media for Fundraising Success," are tailored to deliver practical, actionable insights for fundraising professionals. Recognized for his dynamic speaking style, he engages audiences with his deep knowledge of fundraising best practices, major donor relations, and nonprofit leadership, ensuring participants leave equipped for impactful outcomes.

In addition to his role as a consultant, Ken is an AFP Faculty Trainer and is a former AFP Global Board Member, African-American Development Board Member and the co-founder of Men of Color in Development (MOCID). Ken is a dedicated mentor to young professionals, bringing a personal commitment to education and empowerment. With a strong focus on resilience, Ken's own journey from recovery to professional success underscores his keynotes on topics such as "Resilience in the Face of the Known & Unknown." Known for his commitment to nonprofit excellence and ethical standards, Ken combines his love for teaching, mentorship, and community impact into every speaking and teaching engagement, leaving a lasting impression on all who attend.

Ken Miller, CFRE
3109 Sunset Way, Bellingham, WA 98226
ken@denalifsp.com
907 250-8488