

Testimonials of Lacey Artemis

Here are some things people from various organizations and events have had to say about my work and keynotes.

"I really learned a lot and I've encouraged my company's DEI and facilities teams to attend a future session. I think an enormous number of institutions can benefit from learning from you"

-Meredith Weinhold (Canadian Medical Association Journal)

"Lacey delivered a highly insightful session on sensory conditions. She blended research with practical strategies you can use right away to make spaces more accessible and inclusive. Any organization would benefit from engaging Lacey. Her expertise will help protect the overall quality and perception of the shared space experience."

-Mike Scott (President - International Live Events Association, Vancouver Chapter)

"I really enjoyed your presentation. I gained a lot from it and I hope more people get to hear what you have to say on the subject of sensory accessibility"

-Uli Egger (Rick Hansen Foundation)

"I'm truly amazed at how detail-oriented and creative you are on the topic of sensory science education"

-Lara McLachlan (Neurodiversity Change Foundation)

"Lacey has a talent for crafting accessible environments that help people feel welcome and comfortable. She brings a wealth of knowledge to her work and is great at connecting ideas and crafting threads"

-Kendred C (ODLAN)

"I am consistently in awe of the work that Lacey produces"

-Jennifer Magee (Inclusive Workplace Supply Council of Canada)

"Thank you so much, this was amazing! When venue owners ask me how to make their spaces more sensory-inclusive, i'll know to send them to you!"

-Dr. Gal Schkolnik

"Great information and a great conversation starter. SOLACE and the ABCs of sensory are very memorable!"

-Taelor B (AutScape 2026 attendee)

"I love the way your brain works, you have such a great way to explain sensory issues!"

-Carrie (former Audio Engineer)

"I really enjoyed your innovative approach to accessibility, as a fellow neurodivergent person, it was refreshing!"

-Jason Perks (The Efficiency Architect)

"Your webinar was informative without losing me in the details, and it was nerdy in the BEST way!"

-Keegan Chambers (webinar attendee)
