

Founder of Complete International, an organization that focuses on Leadership Solutions and Personal Growth. Former Professional and Division 2 Tennis player.

Carlos Andrés is a globally recognized John Maxwell Certified International Coach, Teacher, Mentor and Independent Speaker. He leads learning experiences that are tailored to meet the specific needs of the audience(s), to help maximize efficiency and growth. He successfully completed a 25-year career in the faith sector in which he was ordained as a Minister of the Gospel (retired) at the end of 2019 as a director and leader at different levels.

Led non-profit organizations, a foundation, youth development programs in the areas of leadership/management/supervisory training and personal development, team building, training, organizational change, procurement/acquisition, customer service, customer relations and program management and faith development.