

Lisa Skinner Short Bio

Lisa Skinner is a Dementia Care Educator and Advocate with extensive experience supporting families, caregivers, and healthcare professionals. She specializes in Alzheimer's awareness, elder care, patient safety, and navigating complex healthcare systems. Drawing from both professional and personal caregiving experience, Lisa delivers engaging, practical presentations that help audiences better understand dementia and improve care outcomes. Her mission is to educate communities, empower caregivers, and promote compassionate, informed care for individuals living with dementia.