"Jeff Civilico's energy and enthusiasm are best described as contagious. He is a professional in every sense, and he kept everybody engaged and entertained throughout our incentive trip. Amazing as Portugal was, Jeff's performances made the trip even more memorable."

"Jeff Civilico is in a word... FUN! Jeff recently hosted our National Sales Meeting where his energy was contagious. Not only that, but Jeff did the homework and incorporated our culture into his craziness. It proved to be a winning combination for all. Our team looks forward to working with him again."
