AGING OUT LOUD

A joyful, faith-rooted keynote on reinvention, resilience, gratitude, and living fully at every age.

Bold. Grateful. Unapologetic. Alive.

45–60 min • Keynote or Featured Program
• Audience participation available

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Aging Out Loud is not a program about getting old. It is a program about getting bold. With humor, honesty, and hard-won wisdom, Wambui Bahati shares her journey of reinvention, from deep struggle to renewed purpose. She invites audiences to stop playing small, embrace gratitude, trust that their story still matters, and step fully into the next chapter of life. Audiences leave uplifted, seen, and ready to live at full volume.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Wambui Bahati is a veteran actress, speaker, author, and storyteller with more than five decades of creative and theatrical experience. She has performed on Broadway, toured nationally, spoken across the United States and beyond, and built a vibrant YouTube audience in her 70s. Her life and work embody the message she brings: it is never too late to reinvent yourself and live with joy, purpose, and courage.
