BIO DUSTIN DALE

Dustin Dale is a nationally recognized keynote speaker, executive leadership coach, and bestselling author dedicated to helping people transform the way they lead, think, and show up.

After nearly losing his life in 2021 due to a sudden autoimmune disease, Dustin rebuilt his life and career with a renewed sense of purpose. During treatment in an oncology unit, he wrote his first bestselling book, Learn to Lead by Serving. This moment launched what would become a leadership movement centered around servant leadership, courage, and human connection.

Since then, Dustin has coached and spoken to leaders across the country, partnered with many well-known organizations, and built a leadership model that continues to change workplace cultures everywhere.

His message is a blend of leadership strategy, emotional intelligence, accountability, mindset mastery, and the power of serving others. His story is raw, relatable, and deeply inspiring. Audiences connect with him because he speaks from lived experience and real-world leadership.

Dustin is the founder of Beyond the Horizon Consulting™ and the creator of the Lead by Serving™ 5 Level Model. He is the author of five internationally read leadership books. His mission is to help leaders become the greatest version of themselves and create workplaces people are proud to be part of.
