

INTRODUCTION

Our speaker today is John K. Coyle

Hello all. I am here to introduce John K. Coyle, our keynote speaker today. I won't bore you with much in the way of introduction because John is going to tell you much of his story. I have heard parts of his story and all I can tell you is to just "lean in." Everything John will share with you is the way he lives his life.

To give you some permission to listen:

- John went to some great schools like Stanford and Kellogg
- has held senior titles including "head of innovation" at a Fortune 500 firm
- is a 5X TedX presenter
- an Emmy-award winning associate producer and author
- a world traveling adventurer
- and has competed at the highest levels in sports

But all that is just words. Simply put, John K. Coyle is a storyteller. But he tells stories with a purpose. Again, "lean in" and see if you find something of value.

Welcome John.
